

The Promise of God, Extraordinary Rainbows

Rainbows of Various Shapes Have Been Seen During Big Church Events

On May 14th at 11 AM over Manmin Central Church were formed extraordinary rainbows gaining attention from members and passer-bys. There were 2 circular rainbows around the sun and below them was another rainbow that seemed to support two other rainbows.

There are many wonders of changing the weather and aerial phenomena recorded in the Bible and especially, the rainbow symbolizes God's being with us. (Refer to Genesis 9:16).

Starting from the circular rainbow that appeared on May 15th, 1998 we have seen various shapes of rainbows; circular, double, triple and K-shaped rainbows in and out of Korea where works of God took place.

- ① Extraordinary rainbow (05-14-2009)
- ② A circular rainbow during the mission trip to Israel (02-2008)
- ③ Rainbow viewed from the plane during DR Congo Crusade mission trip (02-2006)
- ④ Triple circular rainbow taken from the plane during Honduras Mission trip. (07-2002)
- ⑤ K-shaped rainbow that appeared during mission team's flight to the Philippines (09-2001)
- ⑥ Rainbow that appeared over Manmin Central Church (05-2001)
- ⑦ The circular rainbow that first appeared over Manmin Central Church (05-15-1998)

No Compromise In a Battle

More and more people try to stop smoking nowadays. But what would happen if they happen to be near the smokers? They might want to smoke again saying "Just one more drag." Our life of faith is similar.

For example, if you are to stop speaking ill of others not only you have to watch your own words but also you should not listen to bad things about others. Otherwise, you will find yourself joining them and eventually, such bad habits become more difficult to quit because it is like compromising with enemies in a battle.

To have a heart of truth that God wants, we should have wisdom to be careful in what we see, hear and speak.

Those to Whom the Word of God Came

Jesus answered them, "Has it not been written in your Law, 'I said, you are gods'?"

If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture cannot be broken)." (John 10:34-35)

When Jesus performed great miracles, the people who witnessed glorified God and said, "A great prophet has arisen among us! God has visited His people!" But Jews judged and condemned what Jesus had done and tried to kill Him in any way.

It is the same today. When someone receives revelations from God, prophesies what will happen in the future, or performs wonders and signs in the name of Jesus Christ, many people misunderstand and condemn him as a heretical sect saying, "He calls himself as God."

'Those to whom the word of God came' refer to those who receive the word of God, prophesy mysteries God has told them and testify to the living God by performing God's powerful works.

1. "I said, 'You are gods.'"

Psalm 82:6 says, "I said, 'You are gods, and all of you are sons of the Most High.'" 'Gods' and 'sons of the Most High' here refer to judges in Old Testament times. The Judges in Old Testament times were entrusted with the right to judge by God and were called 'judges.' Or the ambassadors of God who received the word of God were called 'gods.'

The New Testament also has the recordings on those who looked like gods by receiving the word of God and received special revelations from God (Acts 14:11, 28:6; John 10:34-35). God sometimes spoke to them face to face, sent His angels to them or showed dreams and visions.

Those to whom the word of God came can tell and prophesy what will happen in the future and can interpret dreams and visions that cannot be explained with humans, so they were considered or called as gods. Joseph, Moses, Daniel and the apostle Paul were the same cases.

2. Examples of Those to Whom the Word of God Came

First, Joseph was in the Spirit of God. While he was wrongfully sent into jail, the Pharaoh dreamed a strange dream one day. His spirit was so troubled, so he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all its wise men. And Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them to Pharaoh. At that time the chief cupbearer who had been with Joseph in jail recommended Joseph to the Pharaoh.

Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have had a dream, but no one can interpret it; and I have heard it said about you, that when you hear a dream you can interpret it." Joseph then answered Pharaoh, saying, "It is not in me; God will give Pharaoh a favorable answer." Joseph clarified that the interpretations of dream was not in his strength but in the power of God.

Joseph did not give the Pharaoh

his dream's interpretations alone, but presented to him a good solution. Then Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find a man like this, in whom is a divine spirit?"

The Pharaoh didn't believe in God but confessed that Joseph was inspired by the Spirit of God and full of understanding and great wisdom. That's why the Pharaoh let him sit on the next position after the Pharaoh and gave him the authority to rule over the whole land of Egypt.

Joseph, Moses,
Daniel and Paul were considered as gods.

The second case is Moses who was considered as a god by the Pharaoh. Moses was chosen to lead the people of Israel out of Egypt and God said to him, "See, I make you as God to Pharaoh." When Moses manifested God's miraculous works he was considered as a god by the Pharaoh. The Pharaoh was afraid of Moses, so he couldn't kill Moses even when Moses brought many plagues into Egypt.

The signs and wonders Moses manifested were not possible with human power but possible only by the power of God. Every word of God that Moses had delivered was fulfilled and Moses looked like God to the Pharaoh.

The third case is Prophet Daniel who interpreted dreams and visions. Daniel was taken away as a captive into the land of Babylon along with Jewish royal family. In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; and his spirit was troubled and his sleep left him. The king gave orders to call in the magicians, the conjurers, the sorcerers and the Chaldeans to tell the king his dreams. He didn't tell them anything of his dreams but forced them to tell it to him.

The Chaldeans answered the king and said, "Moreover, the thing which the king demands is difficult, and there is no one else who could declare it to the king except gods, whose dwelling place is not with mortal flesh." They meant interpreting a dream that was not told at all was impossible with mortal humans but possible only with God whose dwelling place is not with mortal flesh.

But when the Chaldeans said this, the king became indignant and very furious and gave orders to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. So Daniel went in and requested of the king that he would give him time, in order that he might declare the interpretation to the king. Then the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a night vision, and Daniel blessed the God of heaven. When Daniel came to the king and told him about his dream and interpretation, King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face and did homage to Daniel, and gave orders to present to him an offering and fragrant incense. (Please refer to Daniel chapter 2-3).

Fourthly, the apostle Paul was considered as a god by many people. During his first evangelism journey, the apostle Paul and Barnabas preached the gospel in Lystra.

At Lystra a man was sitting who had no strength in his feet, lame from his mother's womb. This man was listening to Paul as he spoke, and when Paul fixed his gaze on him and saw that he had faith to be made well, he said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet." And he leaped up and began to walk. When the crowds saw what Paul had done, they raised their voice, saying, "The gods have become like men and have come down to us." (See Acts 14:11). Later he was arrested and was being sent to Rome on board. In the middle the boat was wrecked by a violent wind and brought to an island called Malta. The people made a fire in a cold weather and when Paul gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat and fastened itself on his hand. The natives who saw this expected Paul was about to swell up or suddenly fall down dead. But nothing unusual happened to him, and they began to say that he was a god.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

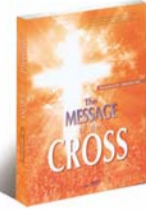

Those to whom the word of God came magnified the holy name of God and were exalted even by the kings. It was because they were the sons of the Most High God the Almighty (Please refer to Psalm 82:6).

When they showed signs and wonders by the power of God, they were considered as gods by many people.

May you become worthy to be considered as those to whom the word comes, magnify the kingdom of God and receive the love and blessing of God, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ I pray!

Want Turning Point in Your Life? Read 'The Message of the Cross'

Elder Dongrok Yang who is working in Department of Information & Security of Dongjak Police Station looks more like a friendly neighbor rather than a strict police officer.

With generous mind he likes to help others. When he sees a poor old woman collecting paper boxes carrying a cart, he helps her push the cart to her destination and even gives her some money.

Elder Yang has a good reputation as Christian, for he arrives earlier at his office and cleans up the desks for his colleagues, and he volunteers to undertake the tasks that others try to avoid. His sole habit is studying the word of God. Though he deeply fell into smoking, drinking and other useless things previously, now he loves to read the word of God carrying the portable Bible and pray.

He used to have endless questions such as, 'Why has the God of love made hell as well as heaven?' 'Why did He not keep Adam from eating the fruit from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil?' and so on.

It was the book The Message of the Cross that made him realize the love of God when he had gone to church with fear for hell and many questions for 30 years. This book he came to read after becoming a Manmin member was the right book for him that gave clear answers to all his questions.

Elder Dongrok Yang
(Lieutenant at the Department of Information & Security of Dongjak Police Station)

"After I understood the providence of salvation in which God gave His begotten Son, the heart of God who had to make hell though He wants all people to be saved, the reason why God put the tree of the knowledge of good and evil and relativity through which God let us experience tear and sorrow for the true happiness in heaven, I found my thoughts were totally changed. And I was overwhelmed with indescribable joy."

He realized how ignorant he was. He felt so sorry about still enjoying smoking and drinking as a deacon. And not only he stopped smoking and drinking, but abandoned all things he enjoyed and started his life of faith again with a new believer's mind.

He kept reading the Bible even on the subway or bus and praying. Whenever he had questions reading Dr. Lee's books, he wrote them down to ask people later.

His wife was just surprised to see him come home early, read Christian books and attend worship services unlike before. And she confesses that it's truly the grace of God that his husband's bad temper disappeared and he became gentle and mild. As the family is always in peace and encourages each other in church works, their children also rejoice saying "My friends envy our family"

Elder Yang confesses his hope is only in New Jerusalem saying "I know I still have my own will and frame that has not yet been thrown away. But just like the apostle Paul confessed 'I die everyday,' I will keep this as my motto and thoroughly put my old self to death."

is hard to get pregnant when either husband or wife has inappropriate body." Since I had seen many couples in the church become pregnant by the power of God, I sincerely prayed that God would make my body appropriate to have a baby.

For about 100 day after the prayer, I passed urine that looked like water left over from washing the rice. I rejoiced with an assurance that God was changing my body. I tried to find things that were pleasing to God and quitted my job to fulfill my God-given duty as a cell leader. My husband also supported me with my decisions.

I shook hands with senior pastor with a faith that I would surely receive answer and glorify God. I was happy like the clouds floating in the air and waited for the God's answer with expectations. One day, in April I felt something strange in my body. I went to hospital for checkup with a hopeful heart and knew that I got pregnant. Hallelujah! We give thanks for the grace of God who gave a blessing of pregnancy.

Three years ago, I had a missed abortion. Once a pregnant woman experiences missed abortion, she has more chances of miscarriage. Back then, I was in a very difficult situation to have a baby, being under physical and mental stress in my work place and having back pain. So I decided to commit everything to God.

On November 28th 2008, I went to Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee to receive prayer wishing to get pregnant. Senior Pastor said, "It

My Left Ear Recovered Hearing

Heungbok Lee (2 Collge Mission)

I thought I had a good faith myself before I came to Manmin Central Church. But after I heard sermon titled with "The Measure of Faith" preached by Senior Pastor, I realized that I could only go to Paradise with my faith because I hadn't known about circumcision of heart at all.

From that time on, I started to study the sermons in the weekly bulletin and tried to accomplish the word in heart by praying at the Daniel prayer meeting. One day in a dream, I was sitting in front of computer wearing white shirts, and bugs came out of the monitor and stuck to my body. So I refrained from doing internet and watching TV because enjoying them too much seemed displeasing to God.

Since childhood, I had a difficulty that I couldn't tell anybody. I lost senses in my left year and could barely hear so I had to watch people's lips to understand what they said. What is worse, last October, I came to know the fact that the nerves in my left ear were inborn dead at the hospital. I offered vowed prayer and kept receiving Senior Pastor's prayer through screen laying my hands on my ear.

Last March 31st after preparing with prayers and offerings, I received prayer from Senior Pastor. And I started to feel something stinging in my ear and then, I began to hear a big sound. Hallelujah!

Melody, Healed of Herpes Zoster

Missionary Shine J. Lee (Manila Manmin Church)

I saw Melody for the first time while visiting Isabella in the mid October last year. Melody, who was visiting her relative for an errand got blisters all over her neck, shoulder and her chest. She said that blisters started to spread from her neck after taking a shower two days before.

Though she took medication prescribed in hospital, she got even worse and couldn't even go to school.

I was so sorry thinking about her pain. After I prayed for her and sprayed Muan sweet water on the sick part, she said that the pain disappeared. Again, I visited her house, sprayed Muan Sweet water and prayed with handkerchief that Dr. Jaerock Lee prayed on.

Instantly, the blisters stopped spreading and couple of days later the blisters, I told Melody and her mother never to touch the skin to let it disappear naturally. After a while, crusts began to form over her skin and later there came out new flesh as the crusts fell off.

Melody gives thanks to God who healed her and she enjoys attending worship services. Also her family is grateful for her healing. The news of her healing was spread to neighbors who witnessed, so more and more people are coming to receive the prayer. Through this experience of God's power, I myself could get more strength and confidence in my ministry.

- Blister spread over the skin.
- Pus coming out of the blisters
- Crusts formed over the skin
- Became perfectly clean

Insomnia and Back Pain Had Completely Gone

Maria Nela Sarasar Natural (Peru Manmin Church)

I am working as a nurse at national hospital. Since my father passed away 14 years ago, I couldn't sleep with depression. Since then, I suffered from nightmare and depended on sleeping pills.

What is worse, beginning from ten years ago, I suffered from pain with spondylarthritis. It was too painful to sit for a while or to lie in bed. The hospital had no special treatment other than just taking pain killer and Vitamins. I even thought with an acute pain "What is good for me to live?"

In June, 2008, I became a member of Peru Manmin Church led by my sister. By the words of life preached by Dr. Jaerock Lee, darkness went away and I came to have a hope for life. Peace and Joy filled my heart and I was proud of being a Manmin member.

One day in the mid July last year, Pastor Lazarus Lee came to me. When he prayed laying his hands on my back with the handkerchief of power, the pain disappeared.

The following day I felt something strange on the way to the bathroom. Previously, I had a very hard time waking up from the bed but I was surprisingly walking without difficulty. In addition, I was healed of insomnia that I had suffered for 14 years last February. While praying at the Daniel prayer meeting one day, I thought how faithless it was to keep taking sleeping pills. I repented to the Lord and sincerely prayed that I might sleep well without taking pills. On that very night I had this big experience that I could fall into sound sleep and no longer suffered from nightmare.

Everything became normal and I am enjoying happy and energetic life.
