

Works of Power Manifested through the Handkerchief Prayer

"God was performing extraordinary miracles by the hands of Paul, so that handkerchiefs or aprons were even carried from his body to the sick, and the diseases left them and the evil spirits went out" (Acts 19:11-12).

| Pakistan | Realizing the Power of the Handkerchief at the Meeting

Pastor Tariq Zia

On July 1st I was invited to speak at a meeting which was held in Lahore led by Pastor Anwar Fazal of Eternal Life Ministry. Twelve thousand people had gathered at the place and it was filled with expectation and excitement. After showing of 'The Power of God' DVD translated in Urdu, I delivered the message. I confidently explained about the handkerchief on which Dr. Jaerock Lee had prayed and started praying for the sick on the altar. This was the time of overflowing grace that many were healed and gave glory to God.

Amir (17, male) who had an electrical burn on the neck was healed after receiving the handkerchief prayer. And Maryam (23, female) was set free from an evil spirit, and Javed (34, male) who couldn't walk with stiffened knees came to walk well. Younis Masih (60, male) was supposed to undergo heart surgery, but 3 days later, after the handkerchief prayer, he was discharged from the hospital without surgery. John who couldn't walk from the time he was 5 years old started to walk through the handkerchief prayer. In addition to these healing works, various kinds of diseases were healed.

Watching miraculous things happen by the handkerchief prayer, Pastor Anwar Fazal brought a basket containing his member's prayer requests. So I earnestly prayed for them. This meeting was God's gift for the people to truly experience the power of handkerchief prayer.

| India | Rahul Healed of Corneal Clouding by One-Time-Prayer

Pastor John Sanhui Kim

Many church leaders and Christians in Northern India are using this 'The Power of God' DVD in evangelical ministry. The material of this DVD is being recognized as a useful tool to spread Manmin ministry.

Ahuja living in Hariyana Northern India joined as a Manmin member through internet after watching the 'The Power of God' DVD. The following day, I visited her family and found that she had a problem. Her eight-year-old son named Rahoul had corneal clouding since birth so he couldn't see things clearly. She was certain that God would heal her son. I laid handkerchief of power upon her and eagerly prayed.

Two days later I received this amazing news from her. Rahoul had always sat in the front row because of the bad sight, but one day he was noisy during the class so the teacher told him to move to the back row. But unbelievably Rahul was taking notes while sitting there. Seeing this, the teacher was amazed and called his mother. Upon the medical check-up it was found that his eyesight had become normal.

| Belgium | Healing of Brain Tumor and Infertility by Unceasing Works of God

Rev. Dr. Guy Davidts

Recently, I am so happy to experience the power of God in my ministry.

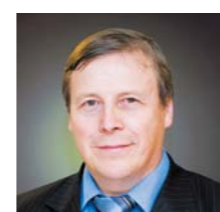

The works of the Holy Spirit manifested by the handkerchief on which Rev. Dr. Jaerock Lee had prayed is causing great interest here in Belgium as well because numerous diseases are being healed and life problems are being resolved.

For instance, one of my members who suffered from paralysis, a speech disorder and with a brain tumor got better after the handkerchief prayer and could speak and move his body. And another member, while giving birth to her twin children, damaged her womb. Finally, one of her Fallopian tubes was blocked so she could no longer have a baby. But on May 3rd during Sunday worship service in Brussels

Manmin Church, she saw a vision that someone's hand was removing something from her womb. And later she underwent a medical test at the hospital and it showed that her Fallopian tube became normal and her womb became strengthened enough to again become pregnant. Just as these cases the value of handkerchief prayer is being revealed and becoming powerful tool for the evangelization of Europe.

| Thailand | A Village Renamed 'Nazareth' Because of Handkerchief Prayer

We received good news from Pastor Waraphon ministering Chai Prakan Church in Chiang Mai, Thailand. He visited Seoul in celebration of 26th anniversary of Manmin Central Church and received the prayer from Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee.

He couldn't help being impressed by the amazing works of God while using handkerchief in his ministry. The most surprising thing that happened recently is that a village became a Christian community after 20 year-old person mute from birth came to speak and a mystic's family was evangelized. Pastor Waraphon constantly prayed and proclaimed the gospel to the mystic who lived near the church. At first, the person strongly refused and didn't open his heart. But without discouragement, the pastor often visited his house with handkerchief and prayed for him. And surprisingly 3 weeks ago, he came over and said he wanted to believe in God. Pastor Waraphon administered handkerchief prayer, and the whole family had the desire to change their names, so the mystic changed his name into Peter, his wife to Esther, his daughter to Maria and his son to Paul. Additionally, his neighbors, who witnessed this, accepted the Lord and renamed the village Nazareth.

Do Not Be Double-Minded

"But he must ask in faith without any doubting, for the one who doubts is like the surf of the sea, driven and tossed by the wind. For that man ought not to expect that he will receive anything from the Lord, being a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways." (James 1:6-8)

If you truly believe in God, you will ask God for help when you have some problems or desires of your heart. A person who has a heart like this shouldn't have a change of heart until answers are received from God. If you don't the answers you expect and you become double-minded between having faith and having doubt, you will gain nothing and become disheartened.

1. Only When You Ask with Faith Will You Receive.

James 1:6-7 says, "But he must ask in faith without any doubting, for the one who doubts is like the surf of the sea, driven and tossed by the wind. For that man ought not to expect that he will receive anything from the Lord." In verse 8 that following it says, "being a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways."

Even though you say you ask God with faith, if you have doubts, it is just like being double-minded. When you want to receive anything to your prayer, you have to believe completely without any doubt that He will answer you.

In Mark 11:24 Jesus said, "Therefore I say to you, all things for which you pray and ask, believe that you have received them, and they will be granted you." Here, He didn't say, "Believe that you will receive them." He said, "Believe that you have received them." If your answer is being delayed, I hope you will consider whether you are double-minded.

2. The Difference between True Faith and Faith as Knowledge

There are two categories of faith. They are 'true faith' and 'faith as knowledge'. In other words, we refer to them as 'spiritual faith' and 'fleshly faith'. True faith is to believe in God the Creator and Jesus Christ the Savior from the depths of the heart. Faith as knowledge is just to have heard and to know about God. But they don't really believe from heart, so they rely on the world. They are unable to rely on God completely. Those who doubt, namely those who are double-minded have faith that is the faith as knowledge. Asking with true faith and asking with knowledge-based faith will lead to completely different results.

When you ask with true faith, first of all, you will be at peace in any kind of situation. On the other hand, those who are double-minded will become anxious and impatient. For example, suppose your little child was in an emergency situation where he had a high fever. In this kind of a case, if you have true faith, you will look for things you need to repent, and receive prayer recorded on the telephone system or receive handkerchief prayer. But if the situation gets worse even after relying on God this way, you may change your mind. If you relied on God with true faith, your heart won't be shaken even in this situation. But if you have asked with knowledge-based faith, you will be nervous and speak out in words of doubt.

Secondly, if you ask with true faith without being double-minded then you will not change your mind. On the other hand, those who ask with double-mindedness will change their mind when the answer is delayed. For example, while they are offering a vowed prayer for something, they just break the vow. Or they change the prayer topic or lower their goal. This is lacking trust in God.

Most people who are waiting for God's answer want to receive an answer immediately and want God to answer in the way they want it to be answered.

But God considers all the conditions together, including the measure of faith of each individual and His justice, and then He gives us the best thing at the best time.

Not to have double-mindedness is to look up to God and to love God in all situations.

Of course, unchangingly asking does not mean you can just be stubborn about everything you ask for in prayer. You can receive an answer when you ask both without changing your mind and when you ask according to God's will (1 John 5:14). Therefore, when you ask God for something, you need wisdom to discern what God's real answer is. Even though you ask without any change of mind, you cannot receive the answer if you ask from within your lust or selfish desire.

Thirdly, those who ask with true faith will cry out in prayer. You cry out in prayer because you believe that God will certainly answer you (Jeremiah 33:3). Those who ask with faith will cry out in prayer even in most dismal situations. When he heard Jesus was passing by, the blind beggar named Bartimaeus cried out to Jesus saying, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" Because he was sure that Jesus would heal him, he didn't care about other people trying to stop him. Crying out in prayer reflects how faithful you are in your faith.

Without true faith, even if they have a problem to resolve, or even if they want to receive blessings, those who do not ask with true faith will not cry out. They should cry out even more when they don't see any sign of the answer coming, but instead they lose heart. It shows they do not have sure faith that they will receive the answer.

3. How Can You Ask with True Faith without Having Double-mindedness?

Whatever you ask of God, if you want to receive answers, you have to ask with true faith. It is not easy. You don't want to doubt, but doubts arise in you. Or, in the interim you may just change your mind. Sometimes you cannot cry out in prayer. Before you cultivate true faith, there must be a series of processes that must be met. You must have the will and determination to rely on God in all things. Whenever you have problems in life, or when you have desires of the heart, even when doubts arise from moment to moment and when there are temptations, you must be able to drive them away and just rely on God. Now, you have to practice the truth diligently following the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Of course, even when you act this way, you may not receive the answer as quickly as you want. But God takes into account all your efforts.

Even physical parents are pleased feeling their children are lovely when they depend upon them and try to stay close to their side. Similarly, God the Father also delights in His children when they try to rely on God alone. He causes their souls to prosper through their deeds of practicing the truth.

Romans 8:7 says, "because the mind set on the flesh is hostile toward God; for it does not subject itself to the law of God, for it is not even able to do so." He breaks your fleshly thoughts one by one and pulls out the untruths from your hearts. Then, you will hear the voice of the Holy Spirit, and not be controlled by the enemy Satan. As you hear the voice of the Holy Spirit, you will have the confidence of heart about receiving the answer. Finally you will change into God's children who receive anything you ask for from God (1 John 3:21-22).

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, not to have double-mindedness is to look up to God and to love God and rely on Him alone in all situations. In the name of Jesus Christ I pray that through this kind of love given to God you may receive everything that you may ask and give glory to God with your whole heart.

"I Am Blessed with My Son Sung-kyul after 13 Years of Marriage."

Suhee Lim of Chunchon Manmin Church feels like she's walking on air each day feeling the love of God more deeply after giving birth to her son Sung-kyul after 13 years of her marriage.

"Right after marriage, I didn't want a baby. I had to concentrate on studying and my work. But later I constantly failed to become pregnant even though I really wanted to conceive. We looked into famous clinics, but they couldn't find any problems."

She became increasingly anxious and lost confidence. She suggested to her husband "What about adopting a baby if we fail to conceive by the age of 40." She even thought about raising pets abandoned on the streets instead of having a child to fill the void. But still she couldn't give up the hope of having her own baby.

She joined Manmin Central Church through her mother-in-law in April 2007. Several times, after seeing countless blessings of conception received by other couples, she received prayer from Dr. Jaerock Lee. But she still failed to conceive.

But God was waiting for the couple to keep peace with one another and to possess true faith. Meanwhile, her husband Kwanky Lee (Professor of Gangwon University, Korea) volunteered to do a gardening work around the church. Through this, the entire family could receive the prayer from Senior Pastor Jaerock Lee.

By the prayer of blessing for conception, I finally received the answer that I looked forward to receiving.
The whole family turned into festival mood and my mother-in-law even shed tears of joy.
My younger sister's pregnancy after four years of marriage brought even more joy.

She visited hospital after she felt symptoms in the body 2 months later and discovered that she was pregnant. The whole family was in a festival mood and her mother-in-law even shed tears with joy. And the pregnancy of her younger sister, who had received the prayer together with her at the time, brought even more joy to the family. When they tried hard to live by the Word and dedicated prayer with joyful hearts, God allowed this blessing to the family.

"Being so thankful, I named my son Sung-kyul (which means 'Holiness' in Korean), and since the day we confirmed the pregnancy, we offered thanksgiving and construction offerings in Sung-kyul's name."

Working in Gangwon Province office, sometimes she felt it exhausting to stay faithful to God. But she tried to make sure she attended worship services and Daniel Prayer Meetings. In about the 6th month of her pregnancy, she experienced a crisis. It was the threatening situation of the pregnancy aborting, but she received the Senior Pastor's prayer and found peace in her heart.

On Sunday, April 5th at 9 AM she safely delivered her son. She confesses that she felt the sincere love of God toward each soul after having her child and said she wanted to dedicate herself to saving souls and pay back the grace of God.

Fire Stopped Right in Front of the House

"The factory next to your house is on fire! Come quickly!"

At the moment she heard this on the phone Hwasook Kim was in Asan, a city that was far away from her house. She committed everything to God. She asked Pastor Hwanjoon Oh (Asan Manmin Church) to lead the service and had a prayer meeting. Her heart was at peace. Then, what was the result?

Even though nine fire engines arrived at the scene, the whole building burnt down in about 10 minutes. But her house was not damaged at all. Later she heard the raging fire suddenly stopped before it reached her house as though a strong wind came out of the blue and kept the fire from spreading.

Hye-in Go fell into deep sleep after coming back home from a family picnic. After seeing a kind of emergency happening of the electric mat on which she was sleeping burning in her dream, she woke up. She woke up her mother and quickly put out a real fire. When she lifted up the blanket she found it had already burned a lot. It was such an urgent moment that might have led to a bigger fire. God saved them from disaster through her dream.
