

“My Family Is Experiencing Happiness since My Wife and Parents Were Led to the Church by the Blessing of Conception”

I am Sergeant Soo Kim. I work in the Criminal Investigation Department of Geumcheon Police Station. I want to tell you about the happy changes that came upon our family since I met God.

My wife was a Catholic and was baptized when she was 2 years old. She didn't go to Catholic church regularly from the time of her high school graduation but she kept St. Mary's statue and the cross in her room. When I began to go to church, she said, "I am not opposed to your going to church but don't tell me to go there with you." When I came back home from the church saturated with the first love of the Lord, I listened to the sermons on the Internet and read Dr. Jaerock Lee's books. Being uncomfortable about this, she often said, "Will you listen to them alone!" or "Please, turn down the volume!" Whenever she said that, I just answered, "Okay, I am sorry."

Because I had a quick and hot temper, I often had quarrels with my wife. And I spoke in a way that sounded like I was commanding or instructing others and easily lost my temper. However, I deeply realized how wrong I was as I heard the word of life. I began to change into a gentle person. With respect to my wife, I changed the way I spoke like, "What do you think?" or "How about this way?"

As I was changed, my wife began to open the door of her heart. Even though she didn't go to church with me, she attended Sunday worship services on the internet at home. How thankful I was! My wife was becoming a Manmin member listening to Senior Pastor's sermons and watching the powerful works of God.

However, we had one concern that nobody knew. It had been a long time since we were married and we were still childless. At first I wasn't so concerned thinking, 'We could have a baby anytime.' But as my brother had a baby after marriage and when it had been over 10 years since our marriage, I became nervous. My wife didn't have any problem in her body at the medical examination. By the help of modern medicine, we tried to conceive when there was a high possibility. But, it didn't work.

But, I heard many cases of healing by the power of God every week since I was led to this church and registered on August 29, 2007. I also heard a testimony that one of our members who had been childless for 22 years but gave birth to a son after receiving the prayer. Particularly, I heard the happy news from Deacon Busam Kim who is a reporter in The Sisa News and a member of our district. Deacon Kim's wife also received the blessing of conception through Senior Pastor's prayer after she couldn't get pregnant for years after their marriage. I used to sit on the same row with this couple during the worship services. Seeing his wife's belly getting bigger with a child, I came to have hope.

When it had been about 4 months since I attended the church, I learned the importance of paying the whole tithe from the Parish Leader Pastor Mikyung Hwang. From that point on, I paid the whole tithe and tried to live by the word so I had faith that we could receive the blessing of conception by Senior Pastor's prayer.

Soon after we received the Senior Pastor's prayer for the blessing of conception on January 25, 2008, we were blessed to conceive a baby. At last, on January 24, 2009, when it had been 12 years since our marriage, our pretty daughter So-eun was born. In August of the year, my joy and happiness doubled as my wife started attending the church with me.

There is a person to whom I am very thankful. He is Elder Joong-ik Chun, who guided me to this church and lead a happy life in the Lord. In early March 2007, when I was assigned to the Control Center of Geumcheon Police Station, he was working as the Head of the Center.

Though I hadn't worked with him except having worked with him in the neighborhood patrol only once a few years ago, I felt comfortable whenever I saw him. And he tried to lead people to the church whenever he could. He once told me, "When you look around, there is many an evidence of creation. For an easy example, consider the tremendous number of people on the earth. Regardless of race, everyone has two eyes, two ears, one nose with two nostrils, and one mouth. Even though each animal has slight differences according to its species, it has the same facial structures as well."

As time passed, my heart was moved, and I finally thought I surely had to accept the Lord. One day Elder Chun handed me over Senior Pastor's testimonial memoirs Tasting Eternal Life before Death. It was so interesting that I finished reading it quickly and read The Message of the Cross, Heaven, Hell, and The Measure of Faith as well. The more I read these books, the more I came to have faith so eventually I registered in the church. I'd like to express my sincere thanks to Elder Joong-ik Chun through this testimony. For the Lord's love and grace was so great, I decided to guide my parents and Brother Myungsup Chang, one of my colleagues, to the church. A year after I started praying, Brother Myungsup Chang registered the church on March 22, 2009.

Brother Chang belongs to the Moonsung Region of the Geumcheon Police Station. He is leading a diligent Christian life, and even though his work as a policeman is very demanding, he attends worship services to live by the word of God. In October of last year, Brother Chang rushed into the flames and rescued Mrs. Lee who was 90 years old at that time. This was reported on KBS News and he received the citation from the Korean National Police Agency (see the related article on Manmin News Issue No. 157).

My Parents' registering as members brought me great joy and happiness. My Father was a stubborn-hearted person. When I told him about the gospel, he strongly refused saying 'I would rather go to hell than to go to church.' After I was certain of the existence of Heaven and Hell, I always thought about my parents. I prayed that God would move my father's heart. He was lukewarm at first, but as good things happened—he had a granddaughter after we received blessing of conceptions in the 12th year of our marriage—I felt the door to his heart opened.

One day, his heart was burdened by inheritance issues. Even as the eldest son, I emptied my heart and pleaded with him saying, "Father, I don't mind whether I receive the inheritance or not. It's your decision. But I want you to go to church with me because I love you." Surprisingly, he answered, "Okay, I'll go to church." Eventually, in April 2009, he began to attend the church, and my mother who was attending a different church also registered in May. I give all the thanks and glory to God and I also want to thank Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee for leading me with love and prayer.

“The World Will Be in a Fierce Triangular Struggle”

Dr. Jaerock Lee Was Selected as a Top-10-World-Renowned Figure by The CloudWatcher Times and Interviewed by Spiritual Diplomacy

The CloudWatcher Times (www.cw.ru) is a renowned international magazine based in Moscow, Russia. It is being read by many Russian-speaking readers around the world including those in Russia, Ukraine, and the United States. This magazine selected the top 10 world-renowned figures and asked Dr. Mikhail Morgulis to interview Dr. Lee. Among the 10 selected figures, Dr. Jaerock Lee, designated a 'spiritual leader of Korea' was selected along with the Russian President Dmitry Medvedev, Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and the US Secretary of State Hillary Clinton.

While interviewing Dr. Jaerock Lee on behalf of The CloudWatcher Times, Dr. Mikhail Morgulis introduced Dr. Lee as the spiritual leader who is spreading the holiness gospel and then asked him, "What do you think of the world situation in the near future?"

In response to this question, Dr. Jaerock Lee said:

"In September of 2009 while I was concentrating in deep prayer, God revealed prophesy that we will meet with a shocking incident that will drive the whole world into sorrows at the close of the year of 2009 and the receiving of the New Year, 2010. Since the end of the year of 2009, all corners of the globe have been suffering from natural disasters including historically-recorded breaking cold weather, snowstorms, flooding, and drought. In addition, the threat of terrorism has been increasing. I asked God in prayer whether these were the shocking events

He had prophesied, but God answered that the incident had not yet occurred, adding, 'A really big disaster will happen and the world will fall into an appalling state of pandemonium.' On January 12, a catastrophic earthquake occurred in Haiti. Because of this quake, the whole world fell into a state of shock and sorrow."

Dr. Lee continued:

"In this world situation, the powers that will take the lead in the world are largely divided into three groups; United States, China, and the EU (European Union), and that these countries had been exercising mutual self-control not to provoke one another, but from now on the conflict-causing factors will be revealed outwardly. The conflict between United States and China will become sharper little by little and the dominant position of leadership of world power will be transferred from the United States to China. The EU will strongly feel they need to form a firmer union to consolidate their position in the world stage and while expanding their influence in the world, the EU will meet with the situations that will cause troubles and conflicts to happen in the relations with China. In the midst of one of the fiercest struggles for a dominant leadership position in the world, China will gain a much more dominant position of influence over the world by entering into a closer partnership. With the passing of time, however, the time will come when the EU takes the stage as the dominating influence over the world." (see the entire interview on page 3).

After finishing the interview with Dr. Jaerock Lee, Dr. Mikhail Morgulis said, "We are experiencing the works of the Holy Spirit through Dr. Jaerock Lee's prayer. He is touching many people's hearts around the world with the love and power of God. For the salvation of many souls, this interview will be translated into English and then Russian and broadcast via Impact TV, RTVI TV, Max TV and Invictory Internet TV. This will also be broadcast in various languages including English and Korean. Moreover, it will be delivered through 12 magazines including Russian Business Magazine, Christian radio programs (Russian) in US and Russia, Vision TV of Ukraine, and Life TV, a Christian TV channel of Baltic States."

A God-Pleasing Family

"Now there was a man at Caesarea named Cornelius, a centurion of what was called the Italian cohort, a devout man and one who feared God with all his household, and gave many alms to the Jewish people and prayed to God continually." (Acts 10:1-2)

Cornelius was a centurion of what was called the Italian cohort, of the Roman Empire that was ruling the world at that time. Though he was a Gentile, God was pleased with his deeds. Through an angel God let Cornelius know where Peter was so he could invite him to his home. Also, God showed Peter a vision and called him to respond to the invitation of Cornelius and preach the gospel to him.

Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee

When Peter came to the house of Cornelius, Cornelius had been waiting with eagerness with his family members, relatives and close friends. When Peter preached the gospel of salvation of the cross through Jesus Christ, something amazing took place. The Holy Spirit came upon everyone who gathered there. Not only Cornelius, but his family members, relatives, and his friends who were there received salvation together.

Do you want the same thing to happen to you also? Yes, it would be wonderful if you could evangelize your family members, relatives, and friends so that they could all be saved at once. Then, how could Cornelius have received an answer and blessings as amazing as this?

God works in justice, and Cornelius certainly met the conditions according to the justice of God. What were the conditions? Verse 2 in today's reading passage has the answer. It says, "...a devout man and one who feared God with all his household, and gave many alms to the Jewish people and prayed to God continually."

First, Cornelius was devout and feared God with all his household.

It was not just Cornelius who had a reverent fear of God alone, but his entire household. This means he was respected, loved, and trusted by his family members. That is why all other family members obeyed him and were united as one. As Cornelius loved God, his family members came to love God, too.

If your children refuse to obey even after you tell them the way of salvation many times, it's not only children's fault. If the parents are good models and demonstrate how to fear God to their children as they are growing up, the children will naturally learn by their example. To fear God is to hate evil as in Proverbs 8:13. If the parents have cast off all forms of evil and have treated their children with goodness, truth, and love, then the children should resemble their parents naturally.

Therefore, as parents you have to be first to fear God and cast away all forms of evil. Then, your children will naturally change and grow up to properly fear God. Cornelius' family members acknowledged him and feared God primarily because of the example Cornelius set for them to follow as the head of the family.

The second reason Cornelius received blessing is because he did many good works by helping the people in need.

Those who fear God will speak words and have acts of goodness for they cast away evil from heart and fill it with goodness instead. They speak out words that give comfort, courage, and warmth, and the words that guide others to life, and their acts will edify others and give love to them. The Bible tells us that Cornelius helped many people. His goodness and the spiritual uplifting found in his deeds were shown especially in his 'charitable works'. We cannot help others just because we are rich. We first have to love the souls and have compassion for them. Charitable works without love cannot be true charitable works. Even if we donate large amounts of money, God will not be delighted with this if we want to reveal our names through it (Matthew 6:3-4). Cornelius' true heart was passed on to the Jews. Acts 10:4 says his alms have ascended as a memorial before God. That is why Cornelius could receive such a great blessing.

It is important for us to store up good deeds in all things. We should not just have good hearts, but we have to actively store up goodness with words and deeds. This is the secret to bring down blessings quickly. If you want to evangelize your family members or friends, you have to act even more so. I hope you will diligently store up goodness so that God can be pleased with you and give you blessings and answers to your prayers.

The third reason that Cornelius received blessings is because he always prayed to God.

Even though one has such a good heart and does many good things, he cannot be saved by those things. The latter part of Jonah 2:9 says, "Salvation is from the LORD." Proverbs 16:1 says, "The plans of the heart belong to man, but the answer of the tongue is from the LORD." Cornelius sought God and always prayed to God in good conscience even though he was not a Jew. Then, God met Cornelius, who was seeking God, and as evidence God gave him blessings. Even though we fear God and do good to meet the conditions according to the law of justice, the one who gives the answer is God.

Therefore, we have to leave everything to God in prayer with humble minds. Also, to receive an answer from God, we must fill the amount of prayer. We have to constantly cry out in prayer with faith and love. I hope you will believe and trust this God the Father and pray without ceasing like Cornelius so you will not only receive answers to your heart's desires such as your family's evangelization but also accomplish a happy family and live with them in Heaven forever.

"What God Reveals about the Events of the Future Will Definitely Come to Pass without Failing"

Interview with Dr. Jaerock Lee about the World Situation in the Near Future

Dr. Mikhail Morgulis had an interview with Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee on January 26 during his visit to Korea. Dr. Morgulis asked Dr. Jaerock Lee about 'the world situation in the near future' and following is Dr. Jaerock Lee's answer.

Q What Do You Think of the World Situation in the Near Future?

A Many people wonder what will happen in their future. Some people predict this will happen or that will happen. But through the examination of the recordings of the Bible, we can understand in which time we are living and what will really happen. In Matthew 24:7-8 is recorded, "For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and in various places there will be famines and earthquakes. But all these things are merely the beginning of birth pangs." These words in Matthew 24:7-8 are being fulfilled just as they are recorded.

While communicating with God in prayer, I often receive revelations on what will happen in the future. For my part, I eagerly want to deliver the message on the bright future of the world situation that plants joy and hope into many people's hearts. But the things God has told me about the future of the world are the opposite. We are currently hearing bits and pieces about climate changes, natural disasters, the spreading of unknown diseases such as swine flu happening all over the world, but what is more surprising is that those dangers will become rampant. Today those disasters and dangers are happening more frequently, and unfortunately people are becoming increasingly numbed to them and so cannot realize the seriousness of the situation. As prophesied in the Bible and revealed by God to those who are awake in spirit at this end time of the world, the signs of the end of the ages will become worse as time passes.

In September of 2009, during my concentration in deep prayer, God revealed prophecy to me that we will meet with a shocking incident that will drive the whole world into unforgettable sorrows at the close the year of 2009 and receiving the New Year of 2010. Since the end of the year of 2009, all the corners of the globe including the USA and Europe have been suffering from natural disasters including historically-recorded breaking cold weather, snowstorms, flooding, and drought. In addition, the threat of terrorism has been increasing and making many people in the world suffer its painful consequences.

While seeing all those things on news programs, I asked God in prayer whether they are the shocking incident He had prophesied. But God answered the incident had not yet occurred. And He added, saying, "When the New Year 2010 comes, a really big disaster will happen and the world will fall into an appalling state of pandemonium." Not many days after the word was given me, on January 12, a catastrophic magnitude 7.0 Mw earthquake occurred in Haiti. Because of this quake, the whole world fell into shock and sorrow. I also felt severe pain and mourned. However, this just further testifies to the fact that without fail what God reveals about the events of the future will definitely come to pass. I have experienced this so many times.

God also said that as time passes the future of the world would become increasingly more difficult as a result of the world political and economic situation. As each nation seeks its own profit and advantage, the acts of terrorism and conflicts will escalate. There will be no other course as warfare among the nations also increases. In this world situation, the powers that will take the lead in the world are largely divided into three groups; United States, China, and the EU (European Union). China has recently been overtaking the two nations measuring which benefits from the two will be bigger. And finally it will choose to open the door within the scope of maintaining its political system and keeping its benefits.

Of course, the United States will exercise a more powerful influence on North Korea than China, but China will not stand still in this situation. China will try to hinder United States state of awareness and realize they will have to become more closely united in order to seize leadership and control of the world flow. While expanding their influence in the world, the EU will meet with the situations that will cause troubles and conflicts to happen in the relations with China.

Of course, I don't mean United States will completely lose its leadership position on the world stage. The United States will naturally search for various means to enhance its influential power over the nations. But these efforts will cause other conflicts to arise. For example, some countries that have allied under the political influence of United States will begin to ally under the influence of China, and thereby serious discord will erupt between the United States and China. In addition, United States will have conflicts with EU over the Middle East.

In the midst of a fiercest struggle for a dominant leadership position in the world, China will come to the decision that it will have to form a close partnership with Russia to extend stronger power over the world. As a result China and Russia will enter into a close partnership, and China will be able to gain a much more dominant position of influence over the world than either of the two countries individually. As shared shortly before, when United States and China are placed into a conflict before the problem of North Korea, it is Russia that will empower China with the dominating influence over it and the world. Accordingly, United States will have more difficulties.

In this phase of such a fierce triangular struggle, China will enlarge its initiative and power over the world, and this will cause both United States and EU to hold back China at the same time. With the passing of time, the world flow will change again, and the time will come when EU takes the stage as the dominating influence over the world. I mean the time will come when EU will possess the greatest power over the world and take the primary leadership position in the world politics and economics.

When this time comes, we will have to realize that the end of the ages as recorded and prophesied in the Bible has arrived. It means the time of the Second Coming of the Lord in the Air will have arrived before our eyes. It will not be long before what I am saying today will be unfolded and realized as reality.
