

The Power of God

How happy would they be if people with bad eyesight gained better eyesight without any medical treatment or glasses? It really happened in Manmin Central Church through Dr. Jaerock Lee's prayer.

We give glory to God for many were healed of astigmatism, xerophthalmia, near and far sightedness and many had improved eyesight.

EYESIGHT RECOVERY

"I Feel Happy Because I Was Healed of Xeroma, Bad Eyesight, and Herniated Cervical Disc!"

Deaconess Seonghee Ryu (2-4 Women's Mission)

I am leading an overwhelmingly joyful life filled with the love of the Lord today. Seven years ago, I started to shed tears even by a light breeze because of xeroma, abnormal dryness of eyes. So I had to reapply my make-up very often and it was very uncomfortable.

Since I heard the Special Divine Healing Meeting would be held, I had prepared for it with a longing heart and offering morning-fasting to God. On June 10, I saw green and blue colored lights when Dr. Jaerock Lee prayed for the sick on the altar. Since then, the symptom of dry eyes disappeared and I gained good eyesight.

I could not read small letters, and it was hard for me to thread a needle. In April of 2011, I had my vision checked. The result showed that I had 0.3/0.5 vision, astigmatism, and farsightedness. But on May 20, through Dr. Lee's prayer I gained better eyesight which became 0.9/0.9 and I was healed of astigmatism as well.

Moreover, God healed me of farsightedness during the Special Divine Healing Meeting. On June 17, I had my eyesight tested again and the result showed that I came to have 1.2/1.2

vision. Hallelujah!

I also had hard time when sleeping due to serious neck ache. I received a massage and oriental treatments, but it did not work at all. I could not tilt my head back, and even from side to side.

Last February, I was diagnosed with herniated cervical discs. The test result showed that No. 3 and 4 neck bones when tilted pressed the nerves. I even had serious pain in my backbone and coccyx. However, I was also healed of both by Dr. Lee's prayer on the May 20. I give all thanks and glory to Father God who healed me completely.

"Wow! How Clear and Bright Our Sanctuary Looks!"

Brother Heeyoung Yoon (The 8th Graders' Mission)

Since I was very young I have spent a lot of time using a computer. I was so short that I even had to keep close to my computer to use it. This caused my eyesight to fail. When I was a 4th grader, I had 0.6/0.5 vision. Then, the vision got worse falling to 0.3/0.3.

I play the bass guitar during Students' Saturday Worship Service. My vision was so bad that I could not read music. I had to play it by memorizing the music. I could not help but prefer taking a front seat in school, because when I sat in a back seat I had to move to the front seat anyway to see and take notes. Even though my vision was that bad, I did not wear glasses because I was told that the vision could get worse due to glasses and wearing them was uncomfortable.

However, on June 10, I experienced the great love of the Lord during Special Divine Healing Meeting. I thoroughly repented with tears and runny nose during Dr. Lee's prayer for the sick. I repented that I had used bad names to my friends, played unsound games, and been arrogant about my ability to acquire skills of playing guitar quicker than other friends.

At the very moment that the fire of the Holy Spirit came in my heart, I felt the fire coming up to my eyes. So, I opened my eyes. Everything around me looked so clear. When I came up to the altar to give my healing testimony, I was overwhelmed with joy because the sanctuary, which had been dimly seen for me, was so clear and bright.

I could not see the rear of the sanctuary, but I came to see it and I felt like I was in a different sanctuary. I give thanks to the Lord for His love and grace.

"I Feel like I were in a Dream Because I Took off My Glasses in 25 Years!"

Deaconess Bongsook Ko (1-4 Women's Mission)

For 25 years, since I was a middle school student, I was almost never without glasses. One day, my son (Jaemin Kim, 11 years old) stepped on my glasses and they were broken.

I suffered from serious dizziness and migraines without my glasses for the following few days, so I could not even walk well. I felt like the ground waded and approached me. I walked zigzaggingly because of astigmatism. My glasses even rested frequently on my face, so my cheeks often broke out. Meanwhile, I heard very good news that Senior Pastor Dr. Lee would lead a Special Divine Healing Meeting. I prepared for it with longing heart.

I started to cast off my old habits, laziness and the evil in my heart by writing them down when I discovered them.

On June 10, during the Special Divine Healing Meeting, I came to be filled with the fullness of the Holy Spirit and a thankful heart while giving praise to God. My son also offered the service to God with tears.

Then, my body became hot when we received Dr. Lee's prayer. To my surprise, my son and I came to have improved eyesight!

I took off my glasses and the signs of anemia totally disappeared. My son feels very happy saying he came to see letters on the board in school well. I give all thanks and glory to Father God.

Divine Healing Works of God Have Been Verified by Medical Data!

The 8th International Christian Medical Conference was Held in Australia with Doctors from 27 Countries Attending

In the 8th International Christian Medical Conference, doctors in attendance were listening carefully to the divine healing cases that proved the power of God. They gave glory to God with rousing applause after each presentation. (Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Center, Australia) from others were the speakers who had firsthand experience of the power of God. Australia's Dr. Sean Thomas George (Cardiologist) presented his case in which he had been in cardiac arrest for 85 minutes but was brought back to life through his wife's earnest prayer. The case was well received by attendees.

Dr. Brian S. Yeo (Integrative Medicine) gave a presentation concerning the healing case of a 14-year-old Korean boy, Haedong Yeo who had met with a traffic accident. He had been at the doorstep of death due to a fractured skull, but after the prayer of Dr. Jaerock Lee he immediately began recovery. After the presentation, the attendee's hearts were moved by an on-stage firsthand testimony by Haedong.

Dr. Joonsung Kim (Pediatrician) presented various healing cases of skin diseases healed through Dr. Lee's prayer. In addition to his presentation, there were many other cases of diving healing presented including case of a young man whose cervical fracture had left him paralyzed from the waist down (Dr. Mieke Kuiper from Australia); a woman who had stopped taking medications but been healed of prolactinoma only by faith (Dr. Kseniya Emelianova from Russia); a man who had been dying of cervical and cardiac laceration and miraculously brought back to life (Dr. Arthur Ferdinand from Indonesia); and a woman who was healed of serious shock after a cholecystectomy.

What made this conference different

Several other cases were also presented.

In addition, various lectures were given that renewed the Christian medical doctors' hearts. The Australian Doctor, Lachlan Dunjey, named as a forerunner of Christian Medical Ethics in Australia, talked about euthanasia and abortion in his lecture under the title of 'Medicine with Morality'. (See photo 1) A few professional lecturers delivered the messages that urged Christian medical doctors to recover proper medical ethics and sense of duty.

The Crystal Singers, of the Performing Arts Committee of Manmin Central Church, sang praises in 20 languages and performed a Korean traditional dance. (See photo 2) Doctors in attendance experienced becoming united as one in the Holy Spirit while giving praise and shouts of joy together with the performance team.

People were also able to see many documented divine healing cases, which have taken place by the power of God, in the exhibit hall. Pictures of various rainbows and the aurora lights which appeared at Manmin Central Church were displayed along with them as well.

Dr. Mieke Kuiper, Director of WCDN Australia and Chairperson of the Conference Organizing Committee sent her thanks in her letter to Dr. Jaerock Lee after the conference saying, "I would also personally like to thank you and your church for praying for us regarding the flood and cyclone earlier this year. No lives were lost with the Brisbane flood in January- the Toowoomba area did see loss of life. With your prayers and also the prayers of many others no life was lost with cyclone Yassie crossing our North Coast- the largest cyclone to ever cross our coast."

The next conference is scheduled to be held in Nairobi, Kenya in 2012.

The letters of the Lord to the seven churches recorded in the book of Revelation are the words transcending time for churches today. They summarize God’s words in the Old and the New Testaments. They also include keys to establishing churches that please the Lord.

They are also the shout of love from the Lord who wants to awaken all the churches on earth. Churches should check if they changed in a way in which they ought to be reprimanded by the Lord even if they say they love the Lord with their lips.

What kind of advice does the Lord give to churches, pastors, and believers today through the Church of Pergamum?

1. The One Who Has the Sharp Two-Edged Sword Says This

Hebrews 4:12 reads, “For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.” It is Jesus Christ who has the Word of God like the sharp two-edged sword.

Then, how does the Word of God which is sharper than any two-edged sword work for us?

Unlike other books in the world, God’s Word in the Bible is living and active. As life is embedded in the Bible, the Word will be fulfilled as written and the works of life reviving souls will take place when we believe it and act according to it. The living Word of God is like a sharp sword that pierces as far as the division of soul and spirit and of both joints and marrow.

What, then, does it mean to ‘pierce as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow’? When God created the first man, Adam, man was composed of spirit, soul, and body. The soul was created to obey its master, the spirit. The body was a container for the spirit and soul. However, when the first man committed sin by eating from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, the master, the spirit, died as God had spoken to them saying, “...for in the day that you eat from it you will surely die.”

Here the expression ‘spirit died’ means that the spirit is ‘locked and cannot work.’ Because the spirit was locked, the soul came to be able to act like the master over the person. But whoever accepts Jesus Christ as their Savior receives the Holy Spirit as a gift and his dead spirit revives. The spirit is then able to grow to the extent it breaks the ‘works of the soul’. These works are the wrongfully input of untruth. And now the individual can learn and practice the Word of God. Once he becomes a man of spirit, he can control and rule over both soul and body. Such works of the Word which break souls and activate spirits is referred to as ‘piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit’.

‘Joints’ are body parts where two bones meet and are able to move together. In a spiritual sense, they refer to self-frameworks which we make for ourselves. We form self-righteousness with what we have seen, heard, and learned. Self-frameworks are created as such self-righteousness is hardened. In general, it is formed with a lot of untruth. To understand the self-framework, you have to first know what self-righteousness is.

Until we change completely into men of truth, we have self-righteousness which makes us insist that we are right. It is formed in us when we input worldly untruth thinking as if it were truth. This is not righteousness in God’s sight, but self-righteousness. When the Word of God, which is truth, is in us we realize that what is right in our own sight may not actually be right. From this point on, one by one we cast off self-righteousness that is contrary to the truth whenever it is discovered in us.

However, we are not able to throw away the self-righteousness discovered in us despite our efforts from time to time. That is because the self-righteousness has already become self-framework. It means that the self-righteousness has already established its own system, which is self-framework. There are various types of things which form self-framework. Personality, knowledge, education, taste, habits, and behaviors can be elements of self-framework. If we have such frameworks, we might have conflict with others, give them hard times, or even pass judgment and condemnation.

For example, those who had no one to share their hearts and made their way on their own as ‘self-made’ individuals, might have difficulties socializing with others. Such a person may develop an introverted character as an element of their framework, so they cannot get along with others well.

On the other hand, those who are extroverted may be misunderstood and seem to be selfish and arrogant.

Some do not seem to insist on their righteousness even if they have strong frameworks. But it is not easy for them to discover themselves because their framework hinders others’ advice from working in them. So, it is difficult for them to change. It is possible to break such frameworks only with the Word of God.

However, because God works in justice, the Word cannot work in those who do not open their hearts due to their strong framework. Only when they open their heart even a little can the Word of God work in them. Therefore, we have to admit that we have self-frameworks, open our heart with humbleness of heart, and accept God’s Word. Then, the framework will be destroyed.

‘Marrow’ is the soft fatty substance inside human bones. This spiritually stands for sin and evil minutely and painstakingly rooted deeply in the heart. As marrow is situated deep in human bones, the root of sin and evil is situated deep in human heart.

Most people can easily discover sin and evil which appear outwardly, but it is very hard to discover sin and evil rooted in their nature. When those who do not seem to have envy or arrogance are faced with trials, their evil will be revealed.

It is the case of Job. Since he lived by the Word of God according to his knowledge, he did not think he was evil. But he had evil deep in his nature. So, when Satan brought accusations against Job, God allowed trials to come upon Job so that Job could discover his evil.

When Job lost all his property and family, his evil did not come out. But when he had great pain from the boils all over his body, his evil, that he had not been aware of, began to come out. He passed on judgment and condemnation on his friends and resented his parents and even God. His evil came out like this, but when God explained to him, he realized his wickedness. He repented thoroughly and cast it away. Then, he went into a deeper level of spirit. He became twice as rich as he had been before. (Refer to Man of Spirit Man of Flesh: Lectures on the Book of Job I & II)

Just as joints and marrow are part of the body, self-righteousness and frameworks are parts as well. They can be removed only by the sword of the Word of God. Only when we break even this self-righteousness and these frameworks can we become holy and true children of God.

2. I Know Where You Dwell, Where Satan’s Throne Is

Pergamum was one of the major cities in Asia in those days. It was the center of politics and studies. It was a city of extravagance and idol-worshiping. Pergamum was full of shrines and temples

The Word of God is living and contains life.

So when we believe it and put it in practice, it is fulfilled as written and the works of life take place.

The living words of God are like a sharp sword that pierces as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow.

to worship idols, such as the temples of Zeus, Dionysus, Athens, and Asclepius, and three huge shrines for worshipping the Roman Emperor. There was a special temple, the temple of Asclepius that was a place to worship serpents.

When the Lord said to the Church of Pergamum that He knew where they dwelt, it means He knew that where they were living was a place full of idols. It also means that, based on the word of God, He knew they were not standing firmly on their faith. He is telling them that they were in a situation in which it was easy for them to be deceived by false teaching resulting from a little bit of change in the word of God.

‘Satan’s throne’ refers to the place where Satan sits. It means Pergamum was full of idols. It is not easy to keep one’s faith living in a place full of sins and like the den of Satan. It’s because Satan brings about so many persecutions, tests, and trials on the believers to make it hard for them to keep their faith.

3. You Did Not Deny My Faith even in the Days of Antipas

Under this severe persecution, Antipas was martyred. His martyrdom became the source of strength to other believers to keep their faith and overcome. The Lord praised this point. The Lord calls Antipas ‘my witness, my faithful one.’ From these words of the Lord, we can understand the faith of Antipas well.

He cast off evil from his heart, resembled the Lord diligently, and preached the gospel with all his life. While he was fulfilling his duty as a witness of the Lord, he was eventually martyred. There is a story passed down about Antipas’ martyrdom.

A Roman officer put Antipas in front of the idol, and forced him to bow down before the idol of the Emperor.

He said, “Antipas, bow down before this image of the Emperor of Rome.”

Then Antipas replied saying, “There is only one King of the kings and Lord of the lords, He is Jesus Christ. I’ll not bow down before any other.”

The officer became furious, and shouted out, “Antipas, don’t you know that the whole world is against you?”

Then, Antipas replied, “Against the whole world, then, I acknowledge Jesus Christ as the Lord of the lords.”

Then out of his anger, the officer put Antipas in a blazing brass furnace, and killed him. But, even in these terrible persecutions and hardships, the members of the Pergamum Church kept their faith.

Some of the believers who do not clearly know the truth may have questions such as, “They believed in God, and they were faithful. So, why were they persecuted and why did they have to die in martyrdom?” “If God is truly alive, how could He leave them alone?” But if they understand the will and providence of God, they can realize why these things happen.

There were many martyrs’ deaths, not only in the early church such as in the Church in Pergamum where Antipas died as a martyr, but martyrdom occurred everywhere that Christians and Christianity initially settled. Such was the case particularly in the Roman Empire that ruled over practically the whole world.

The citizens of Rome watched as many Christians were dying as martyrs in the Coliseum. They regarded them to be very foolish. They even enjoyed it. To the citizens of Rome, Christians who were beheaded and became the prey of lions to keep their faith looked so ridiculous.

But soon, they started to think it strange. “How could they have smiles on their face while dying?” “What made them act like that?” “Who is Jesus that they believe?” Then they became interested in Christianity, and then more and more people wanted to know about Christianity. Finally, many people heard the gospel and accepted Jesus Christ. Furthermore, at the time of Constantine I the Great, Christianity was approved and later it was established as the state religion.

This is God’s providence that human beings cannot understand. Without this, Christianity could not have been spread throughout Europe and the whole world as quickly.

A person who lives a Christian life as he sees fit cannot keep the faith when faced with the pain of martyrdom and the fear of death. Chances are greater that he will forsake his faith when faced an extreme situation or a threat of life because he hasn’t cast off evil in his heart.

Only those who are faithful with unchanging hearts can keep faith even while facing threats against their lives. They can die a martyr’s death for their faith to the extent that they cast off evil and reach sanctification. Such martyrs will receive great honor and glory from God. So, it is actually a great blessing for them.
