GCN HD Programs Available Anywhere, Without Satellite Dishes!

GCN launched a service on Channel 882 of KT Olleh TV from 2014 Christmas

Beginning on the blessed Christmas Day in 2014, GCN became available on the channel 882 of KT Olleh TV to continue spreading the holiness gospel and the powerful works to the whole world. KT Olleh TV viewers now have access to the GCN's HD (High-definition video) programs anywhere in South Korea without a satellite antenna.

"Since the GCN's opening, Dr. Jaerock Lee, GCN Founder and Chairman, has asked us to make the holiness gospel more accessible anywhere without need of a satellite antenna. Following his word, we have made preparations in various fields; one of them is launching a channel of KT Olleh TV. It will enable not only Manmin members but also other people to enjoy our quality programs. I am very thankful to see more people meet God through this service," said Elder Boaz Lee, GCN President.

KT Olleh TV is a leading South Korean HD IPTV service provider with approximately 17 million viewers at 5.5 million households. On its IPTV platform and through its cutting-edge HD display system and large network, GCN's high-quality programs become accessible to many more people. Furthermore, many of unbelievers are expected to accept Jesus Christ because programing is now available for anybody as long as they are KT Olleh TV subscribers. Through this launching, non-Christians as well as Christians came to have greater chance to receive spiritual blessings.

A differentiated channel with only HD programs!

Our newly launched channel 882 of KT Olleh TV broadcasts only HD programs, so it has different listings from GCN's. GCN's differentiated sermon, education, and performing arts programs are at hand through HD quality image.

Elder Jaehwan Lee, GCN Director stated, "Our goal is to provide our viewers with the best sermons and the best programs through the best technology and the best image. Dr. Jaerock Lee, GCN Chairman has constantly supported us to produce HD programs, so we are now able to produce, edit, and broadcast programs on our own without outsourcing. In particular, since last year, we have produced all our programs with full HD technology."

Currently, GCN covers around 170 countries in the world, and it has produced and broadcast God-glorifying programs to the whole world. It has differentiated program contents such as the word of life, God's powerful works, believers' testimonies, and Christian culture showing heavenly beauty. Many viewers all around the world have been renewed through Dr. Jaerock Lee's message and healed of their diseases through his space-and-time-transcending prayer.

The Love of God

Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee

“We have come to know and have believed the love which God has for us. God is love, and the one who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him” (1 John 4:16).

Unbelievers talk about the transience and vanity of life, but believers have different feelings about earthly life. We are living with hope for glory and rewards in Heaven as well as receiving answers and blessings on the earth. So, we are filled with thanks every day.

God prepared Jesus Christ for His beloved children since before the ages, and he has continually been preparing to give them unimaginable happiness and joy. Now let's delve into the God's love that we must remember as His loving children.

First, God gave Jesus Christ to save all mankind

John 3:16 says, “For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life.”

The precious Son of God came to this earth in a human body. He preached the gospel of the kingdom to souls and saved them from diseases and various pains with His great power. Eventually, to redeem us from our sins He received the wretched punishment of the cross.

What would we have felt if we had directly seen Jesus being flogged and moaning, with His whole body covered with blood? Also, what if, while He was hanging on the cross we had had eye contact with Jesus, who had such desperation in His eyes for the souls? I believe the impact would have made it impossible for us to forget the scene for the rest of our lives.

The memory of the eyes of Jesus would be vivid reminder whenever we heard that God ‘so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son to save us’. We would burst into tears thinking of the love of Jesus who was hung on the cross and of the love of God, who had given His only begotten Son unto death on our behalf.

Some people think, “Did Jesus really suffer the pains?” They think, “... would it not have been easy for Him to bear with tiredness, hunger, and even the sufferings of the cross?” But such could never be the case.

Though He is the Son of God, because He came to redeem sinners from their sins as a human, He still had to suffer all the pains as they were. He suffered from hunger, tiredness, cold and heat. He also suffered the pains of being torn by the scourging and being nailed through His hands and feet. The pains were felt the same way any ordinary man would have felt them.

He confined all His divinity in the small physical body, and He felt all the stuffiness of this physical space, and He ever increasingly missed God more greatly. He had great concerns for those souls who had weak faith and also for the disciple who would betray Him.

Before He took the cross, He had to pray until His sweat became like drops of blood. But He did not try to avoid any of those painful moments. It's because He knew so very well the love of God who wanted to open the way of salvation for the souls that were going the way of death.

Of course, God mourned so much when Jesus was taking the cross. When He was nailed to the cross, God even left His throne and mourned in the place that no angels and no heavenly hosts could see and find. He lamented more because He knew that many people would not repent but just go to Hell due to their evilness though they saw Jesus' miserable crucifixion.

Jesus's lamentation of mourning was the same as God's. Even when He cried out on the cross, “Why have You forsaken Me?” He cried out and mourned thinking of the souls who would go to Hell without knowing that He was crucified to save them. Both God and Jesus mourned for the souls. So, while He was on the cross, even the sun in the sky lost the light and it became dark. When Jesus breathed His last, there was an earthquake and the rocks split open.

We received salvation because God took up such pains and gave Jesus to suffer the cross. We gained the way to go into the eternal Heaven being set free from the eternal punishments of Hell. How thankful we must be! And how amazing this is! I hope you will etch this love in your heart so that you will not forget it even for a moment.

Secondly, God established the church which is the Lord's body and gave us a true shepherd Latter part of John 10:11 says, “I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd lays down His life for the sheep.” A good shepherd would not spare any kind of effort for the flock. When ferocious animals attack, he would protect the sheep risking his own life.

In a spiritual sense, a true shepherd would take care of the sheep with all his life as well. Today, there are many churches and many pastors, but it is not easy to meet a true shepherd who would protect the flock with all his life and lead them to spirit. If a pastor is a hired hand who seeks his own, he does not really have to teach the flock to live a holy life and distance themselves from the world and to enter into the narrow gate.

Such a shepherd might just teach them that they will receive answers and blessings if they pray, and avoid teaching them about casting off sins. He might feel it easier to preach and the members might like it more. But a true shepherd should teach about sin, righteousness, and judgment for the flock's salvation and spiritual growth.

Thus, it is a tremendous blessing if we are always being taught to be holy and pure, and we are learning to cast off sins in our life of faith. It is in this way that a true shepherd renews believers with the word of life and leads them to the way of salvation and Heaven.

On the contrary, hired shepherds teach believers that they may rely on the worldly methods when they are sick, although God clearly says He will work according to our faith and signs will accompany those who believe. It means they deny the almightiness of God and demean the signs and wonders in the Bible. Even if they do teach the truth, it does not always mean they are true shepherds.

1 Corinthians 4:15 says, “For if you were to have countless tutors in Christ, yet you would not have many fathers, for in Christ Jesus I became your father through the gospel.” A true shepherd is not just a teacher who teaches only with words. The true shepherd is a person who shows the example of practicing the truth and supplies the flock with the strength to act.

The shepherd has to pay a price to help his flock walk in the Light just as Jesus Christ paid the price with His life to open the way of salvation.

As the shepherd of Manmin Central Church, I have been storing up countless prayers and fasting so that the members could gain the power to practice the truth. I taught the true will of God by having deep communication with God, and I have clung to Him to open the spiritual realm so that they could have more hope of Heaven.

Whenever it was necessary I showed them greater manifestations of the power, drove away the darkness with light, and supplied them with the strength to change. Furthermore, there were souls who said they repented of sins leading to death but could not turn away completely. For them, I had to cling to God once again with so many tears and so much mourning.

To make way for just one more soul to be saved I could not rest my mind. I had to lead just one more person to the rock of faith, from the rock to the spirit, and from the spirit to the whole spirit, and from the whole spirit to reach the fullest measure. I offer up aroma of earnest prayer to God day and night. Now, many of them are standing on the rock of faith and have come into the spirit, and many more of them are coming into spirit.

I hope you will always give thanks for the love of God who has given you a precious church and a true shepherd so that you can lead a proper Christian life.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, when we learn the Word of God, we have to try to practice what we have learned. We have to obey the Words that tell us to do, not do, keep, or cast away certain things. Only in doing so, the Words that you learned will become life and power in you. I pray in the name of the Lord that, in doing so, you will become pure brides of the Lord our Bridegroom and one day rest securely in His arms.

The Confession of Faith

1. Manmin Central Church believes that the Bible is God-breathed Word that is perfect and flawless.
2. Manmin Central Church believes in the unity and the work of God the Trinity: God the Holy Father, God the Holy Son, and God the Holy Spirit.
3. Manmin Central Church believes that we are forgiven of our sins only by the redeeming blood of Jesus Christ.
4. Manmin Central Church believes in the resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ, His Second Advent, the Millennium, and the eternal heaven.
5. Members of Manmin Central Church confess their faith through “The Apostles' Creed” each time they come together and believe in its content verbatim.

“[God] Himself gives to all people life and breath and all things.” (Acts 17:25)

“And there is salvation in no one else; for there is no other name under heaven that has been given among men by which we must be saved.” (Acts 4:12)

Joy to the World! The Lord Is Come! The True Meaning of Christmas

“Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among men with whom He is pleased” (Luke 2:14).

Celebrating the birth of our Lord Jesus who came to the earth to save all mankind, let's look into the true meaning of Christmas.

First of all,
Christmas is the joyful
day celebrating God giving salvation to all mankind

The birth of Jesus, the Son of God, was the beginning of the providence of human salvation. He came to the earth in flesh in order to become the atoning sacrifice for men who were under the curse of the Law, which says, ‘The wages of sin is death.’ Hence, we should remember this love of Jesus who came to save us and take greatest delight in it on Christmas.

Suppose you were in great hardship but someone helped you out of it and you gained new strength and hope through him. Then you should not forget his grace. This is the duty of man. If you really feel thankful, you will repay the grace not just once, but also try your best to repay it constantly until the last moment.

In the same manner, through the Lord Jesus, we have been saved from the eternal death of Hell. Moreover, through Jesus Christ, we have gained Heaven where we will live happily forever. If we really understand the grace of salvation, we must give thanks continually not only on Christmas but also for the other 364 days until the Lord comes again. We have to understand from our hearts how great, thankful, and joyous the grace of salvation is.

The birth of Jesus made available to all men the blessing of salvation, the greatest joy that cannot be compared with anything else in the world. Let's enjoy the joy of salvation on this blessed Christmas.

Secondly,
Christmas is when God demonstrated His greatest love to human beings

1 John 4:9-10 reads, “By this the love of God was manifested in us, that God has sent His only begotten Son into the world so that we might live through Him. In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins.”

One can't be the Savior to save sinners by just having power or riches. The one who is to save them must be qualified according to the law of the spiritual world, be hung on the wooden cross, and shed his blood.

In other words, he must shed blood that is identified with his life to set us free from death and bring life to us. Because it says, “Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree”, he must also be hung on the wooden cross as a curse to redeem us from the curse of the Law since “the wages of sin is

That is, the one who is to be the Savior has to completely sacrifice himself and bear all sufferings. God knew it better than anybody else. Nevertheless, God sent His greatly beloved Son Jesus to the earth as the propitiation and the Savior for us.

Romans 5:7-8 says, “For one will hardly die for a righteous man; though perhaps for the good man someone would dare even to die. But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.” As recorded, God loved us who became sinners to the extent that He could exchange His loving Son Jesus' life for our lives.

Today are there people who would readily and willingly surrender everything they possessed for the sake of others? Furthermore, could they surrender everything for their enemies? God did just this. God gave up His only begotten Son, whom He loves and cherishes most, for us who were the slaves to the enemy devil and became God's enemies. He didn't love us only with words, but He demonstrated His love with deeds and truth.

Christmas is the day when Jesus was born on this earth in this great love of God, and the day we should celebrate it. Therefore, on Christmas we have to feel and experience God's love deep within our hearts and love God more from the heart. We also have to show our love for God in deed and truth as well as with word and with tongue just as God demonstrated His love for us through Jesus.

Thirdly,
Christmas means that God wants to lead many souls to Heaven and share
love and joy with them
forever

John 14:6 reads, “Jesus said to him, ‘I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.’” As read, God sent Jesus to the earth as the propitiation for our sins, and wants all men to be forgiven of their sins and enter into Heaven through Him.

God opened the way for us to enter Heaven even by giving us His most beloved Son without expecting anything in return. He has prepared our heavenly dwelling places with the most beautiful and valuable things and He has been calling all people to enter there and waiting for them with patience not to lose a single soul.

God wishes for His loving children to enter Heaven and live there with joy and happiness forever. He also wants to share love with them. So, He didn't spare His only begotten Son and He has been enduring all sorrows and pains during the 6,000 year period of human cultivation.

If we understand this heart of God, we should naturally come forth as His best children who resemble Him.

We should not be satisfied with only the fact that we will enter Heaven. But we should strive to move closer to God's throne and give thanks for His grace and love and please Him forever.

Hebrews 12:14 says, “Pursue peace with all men, and the sanctification without which no one will see the Lord.” As said, let's accomplish sanctification and be faithful in all aspects, and thereby enter New Jerusalem the best dwelling place in Heaven and see the Lord!

“In the Spirit’s detailed and nice guidance, I have been led to overflowing blessings!”

Brother Yonghun Kim, age 43, 2-15 Parish, South Korea

In July 2013, my wife, Junior Deaconess Eunsuk Kim started to attend Manmin Central Church. She was healed of serious depression within two months while attending there. With a thankful heart, I also started going to the church. While listening to Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee’s message, I began to become renewed. On September 14, 2014 I experienced an amazing work that changed me completely.

In July 2014, I made up my mind to keep the Lord’s Day completely, and then God started giving me precious realizations every worship service. I sometimes even heard the clear voice of the Holy Spirit as if it was the voice heard from right beside me. It gave me tremendous realizations of the truth that I had never imagined.

I read Senior Pastor’s books such as The Message of the Cross; Tasting Eternal Life before Death; and Spirit, Soul, and Body I & II. As I was reading them, I felt the untruth in my heart collapsing as the foundation of faith was being established in it. In particular, The Message of the Cross astonished me. I thought, ‘Why has no one told me that Christianity is this amazing?’

When I was young, I would ask many pastors, “Could those who lived without any opportunity to hear about the gospel be saved?” All of them said no. I couldn’t acquire spiritual answers to my questions this way. As such experiences were repeated, I came to misunderstand God and think that He was not giving fair opportunities to people.

However, while listening to and reading Dr. Lee’s messages, I came to understand God’s mercy and the Lord’s sacrificial love. By the Holy Spirit’s guidance, I realized that my business was the Lord’s and I was just a tenant. Moreover, I made a resolution to cut myself off from the world and not to sin again.

On September 14, 2014 I gave offerings for charity online and attended Daniel Prayer Meeting. I had never prayed properly before, so I just spoke of many sins that came through my mind. I said in the prayer, “I am arrogant. I am nothing.” And then, heat came upon me.

I shed more tears that I had shed during all my life, repented of arrogance, and prayed to be given spiritual faith continually. I said in the prayer that I didn’t want any financial gain, authority, or worldly desires. During the prayer, Senior Pastor appeared in inspiration and said to me with a great joy, “Do you want a gift from me?” Then the gift was given to me four days later.

While I was praying, what I had done at the age of fifteen flashed through my mind. At that time, I had felt a surge of anger at the reality surrounding me and written my resentment against God. As this scene came over me, I felt afraid and kept just saying, “Forgive me” and begging for around an hour. Soon I felt better and came to call God “Father” for the first time in my life and to pray with friendly words to Him. This was the gift Senior Pastor had spoken about.

Two weeks after that I was faced with an odd problem in my business. All procedures in the process of business were stuck in problems. Simply put, everything wasn’t going well! At the moment, I was reminded of what I had thought—‘What is it to rely completely on God?’

At once I set aside all my methods and repented of my sins and wrongdoings. Then I was given faith that all problems would be resolved. As I believed, all the problems were solved one by one. God taught me in this way through such hands-on experience of the spiritual law to increase my faith.

I am working in the field of IT Consulting Service.

One day, I was having a tough negotiation about the price of some service and products with vendors. If it had happened before, I would simply have used my head to win over their hearts. But now I came to feel very bad when I lied to others. Not doing anything and not knowing what to do, I was in trouble.

A few days later, however, a vendor sent me the cost estimate sheet where the price had been cut 60%. And the following day, another vendor sent me the sheet where the cost had been reduced 20%! I just wanted to distance myself from sins, but God cherished such desire of my heart and worked on my business with His gentle and delicate love.

As I experienced such things, I come to search God’s profound will in every given situation. The God of love has always given more blessings than I expected. I want to be used by Him as a good instrument of the Holy Spirit. I give all thanks and glory to God.

“God who is so good healed me of all my diseases”

Sister Cheren Chimek, age 21, Mongolia Manmin Church

I was frequently sick from when I was very little. Growing up this way, I thought deeply about the existence of the true Deity and I wondered how I could find Him. Meantime, in October 2012, I was guided in the grace of God to Mongolia Manmin Church ministered to by Missionary Botzorig Purub.

Before going to church, I had been treated at the hospital for ten years due to inflammation of the kidneys. I also felt inconvenienced because my shoulder pain and allergic reaction to detergent caused me to be unable to do many things including washing clothes. However, in the church I witnessed many people being healed of their diseases through Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee’s prayer. After seeing them, I came to have faith.

In April 2013 and again in 2014, my church held Handkerchief Healing Meetings with Pastor Botzorig.

When he prayed for the sick and me with the handkerchief that Dr. Lee had prayed on (Acts 19:11-12), I was healed of all my diseases completely.

Later on I met God the Healer again and became more healthy. I had missed my period for around three months so I went to hospital. The test result was that I had ovaritis. I prepared to receive healing during the next handkerchief healing meeting with fasting and prayer.

On October 27, 2014, the Handkerchief Healing Meeting was held again. When I received the prayer, heat covered my whole body and I was convinced of my healing. The medical retest revealed that I had been healed of ovaritis! Hallelujah!
