“I Have to Acknowledge that They Are Works of God!”

WCDN Doctors in the Scenes of God’s Explosive Power

Pastor Kilongo Mbilizi Desire,
New Life Church, Tel Aviv, Israel

“The messages are confirmed with signs!”

I participated in Manmin Summer Retreat 2018 and met many people from many countries. I also experienced powerful works of God and the ministry of Manmin firsthand.

As Dr. Jaerock Lee, Senior Pastor of Manmin Central Church had visited Israel many times, I heard about his ministry and the church’s summer retreat and had longed to attend it. I came to attend, and felt even more amazed than I had expected. I could not but give thanks and glory to God. I witnessed the strong power of God. As I personally witnessed such works as signs and wonders that the Lord’s disciples manifested, I received new strength and fullness.

Dr. Lee performed his Israeli ministry for three years starting from July 2007. He showed the love and power of God, and in 2009 he boldly proclaimed Jesus Christ as our Savior in the Israel United Crusade. His ministry sparked the revival of the Messianic Jews in Israel. Pastors were united transcending denominations and churches experienced revival.

Dr. Lee has shown his sincere love to Israel and unsparingly and consistently supported us in everything. If we had not met him, our churches in Israel could never have seen such revival as we are now experiencing. We could never be conducting this amazing ministry that is leading countless people to the Lord and preparing for His second coming. I extend my deepest gratitude and love to Dr. Jaerock Lee.

There are some people who use their knowledge as a spiritual prop to support their belief in the living God, while some others do not believe in the existence of God due to the frameworks of their knowledge.

In 2004, World Christian Doctors Network was founded for the purpose of awakening many more erudite individuals who are ignorant of God, and they have annually conducted conferences where the divine healing cases are presented based on medical data. They also have charge of patient registration and testimony registration and recording in such meetings as overseas crusades, special divine healing meetings, and summer retreats where God’s healing works unfold.

On July 18, 2018, WCDN started to work on the registration of patients who longed to receive healing in Manmin Summer Retreat 2018. As explosive works of power had occurred in every retreat, the number of sick people on the list this year was 1,217 including the members of branch churches.

During the first day of the retreat on August 6, attendees received the handkerchief prayer (Acts 19:11-12) and many of them came to the WCDN’s booth to give their testimonies. The WCDN’s surgeon, pediatrician, psychiatrist, radiologist, and dentist checked them, compared their current condition with that before the prayer and recorded their testimonies. Over three hundred testimonies were received at the venue, and more testimonies have been even after the retreat.

Dr. Gilbert Chae, President of WCDN said, “When I see diseases, that are known to be incurable and terminal, healed, and when I see the blind come to see and people in wheel chairs stand up and walk, I am amazed and excited. Though evolutionist thought seems to be prevalent today, WCDN has been proclaiming God the Creator and His great power by confirming amazing divine healing cases based on medical data and delivering the news through books, TV programs, and annual conferences.”

The Ministry of Manmin Was Proclaimed in Peru International Christian Conference

From August 17 to 19, 2018, International Christian Conference was held in El Aposento Alto Church (Bishop Alberto Santana) in Peru. Elder Johnny Kim, Director of GCN was invited on behalf of the church.

The attendees already knew Dr. Jaerock Lee’s powerful ministry through Peru United Crusade 2004 and Enlace TV.

Some eminent people of Latin America such as Dr. Hector Bonarrico, Vice President of the Chamber of Senators Argentina and President of Christian TV and Dr. Fabricio Alvarado, Vice President of Legislative Assembly, Costa Rica gave lectures. Over a period of four sessions, Elder Johnny Kim spoke based on Dr. Lee’s lectures on Genesis and his sermon series “The Message of the Cross”. He also showed video clips pertaining to the church’s powerful ministry and performances of Performing Arts Committee, which were well-received by the attendees.

The Wisdom from Above Is Reasonable

“But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, unwavering, without hypocrisy. And the seed whose fruit is righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace” (James 3:17-18).

God says to His loving children, “Keep His commandments and do good, and I will bless you.” While those who are spiritually foolish do not obey and just follow their own benefits, wise people joyfully keep the commandments and do good because they know that blessing given by God is much greater than profit they can gain through worldly methods.

As you keep the commandments, do good, cast off evil to achieve sanctification, and pursue peace, you can bear the fruit of gentleness and reasonableness. These two elements come from broad hearts and freedom that you can have to the extent that you cultivate your heart into truth. Continuing from the wisdom of gentleness in the last edition, I will explain the wisdom of reasonableness or wisdom of submissive willingness to yield.

1. Spiritual Meaning of ‘Reasonableness’

Here, ‘being reasonable’ spiritually means ‘being submissive with a willingness to yield.’ When you are reasonable and submissive with a willingness to yield, you can show the aroma of a good and beautiful heart through words and deeds. If your heart is filled with goodness and truth, the words you give out will be good words and all your deeds will be beautiful.

But being good is not just being submissively soft and gentle all the time. It is also strong and bold because the heart filled with goodness and truth has the authority of light to drive away darkness. So, if we have reasonableness in a submissive willingness to yield, that is to yield to higher reason or judgment, we can lead others to the truth and help them control their hearts. Thus, when pastors and workers who have borne the fruit of reasonableness give advice to the church members, the authority of their words will be different.

Without the fruit of reasonableness, although you consulted someone and it seemed he understood, soon he may come with similar problems wanting to hear the answer again. Even if you do your best to solve his problems, you can see that he has not changed. But if you are submissively willing to yield, you can cut him off from all his doubts and negative thoughts he has. Just with a couple of words you can understand his situation and change the direction of his thoughts to have spiritual thoughts.

In other words, ‘reasonableness’ is not just about being good and gentle, but it is the high level of goodness in which we can discern and choose what is more pleasing to God by the Holy Spirit when there are several choices that belong to the truth.

2. Three Characteristics of ‘Reasonableness’

1) It gives peace to others by discerning the crux of their problems based on the truth.

In Luke chapter 12, one person came to Jesus and asked Him to tell his brother to equally divide the inheritance of his parents with him. But Jesus said to him in Luke 12:15, “Beware, and be on your guard against every form of greed; for not even when one has an abundance does his life consist of his possessions.” Unless this person cast away his greed, he would constantly have conflicts with his brother. Also, only when he could cast away his greed could he receive blessings from God. So, Jesus gave him the spiritual answer by teaching him the true way of blessing.

In Daniel 5, King Belshazzar of Babylon was having a party. He brought the gold vessels that had been taken out of the temple, the house of God which was in Jerusalem. He drank from them and praised his idols. At that moment, the fingers of a man’s hand suddenly emerged and began to write something on the wall of the palace. The king was so shocked he trembled with fear. He said he would give a big reward to the person who could interpret the writing and would make him the third ruler in the kingdom.

Now Daniel who had been appointed by the king’s father Nebuchadnezzar was summoned. He was able to read and explain what it meant. The meaning was that king Belshazzar acted arrogantly before God. Because of it, his kingdom was to be handed over to Medes and Persians. The king gave him great awards as he promised. He clothed him with purple and made him the third ruler in the kingdom.

Even after hearing the interpretation, however, he did not set about solving the problem to nullify the upcoming judgment of God. He just enjoyed his party. On that very night, he lost his kingdom and was killed by the enemy forces as God had said. God warned him in advance through such an extraordinary incident, and Daniel explained to him with wondrous wisdom, but it was of no use. Because the king did not apply the wisdom to himself, he could not derive any benefit from it.

There are some people who are like the king even today. They like to hear advice but they do not apply it to themselves. Thus, only when you change yourself in actions by the truth and try to help your family and people around you change can you help them change by the good wisdom and lead them to the grace of God.

2) It is discerning the will of God quietly and being self-content.

Some people show their discontent outwardly when things do not go as they want or when they are in difficult situations. They become nervous, their facial color changes, and they make others feel nervous as well. They pour out complaints, and they may also put the blame on others. But this way, they cannot solve the problem. These kinds of actions will just block them from experiencing the works of God, and they will lose the heart of others, too.

However, those who have cultivated submissiveness and willingness to yield will not lose the comfort in their heart even in difficult situations (Philippians 4:11-13). They do not get surprised or become sad. They just quietly discern the will of God. Because the grace of God they have received is abundant in them and because they are sure of the love of God, they can be at peace. And they choose the best course of action they can in given situations.

Of course, it does not mean they are not nervous at all. But it means deep inside their heart there is no agitation, and they are at peace because they trust God. When that trust is truthful, God will surely answer them and be glorified (Romans 8:28).

Faith is not just wanting God to work the way we want Him to work. If we truly believe, we have to realize the will of God by relying on Him all the time. And within the will of God we have to find our way and act with faith. If we are self-content in our situations with reasonableness and follow goodness, the Holy Spirit will always shine on our way.

This is the wisdom to experience the works of God who walks with us even in the valley of death.

3) It is the character to not only obey the word of God but do more than what we are supposed to do.

Those who have reasonableness of heart will obey the word of God because they love God. Furthermore, in the Holy Spirit's guidance, they can discern what is better in everything. When God commands them one thing, they do two or three, or even more than that by understanding the heart of God. When God looks at children like this, He will be so pleased saying, "They are after My heart."

You may sometimes have to choose between two things. Of course, if one is truth and the other is untruth, you obviously have to choose the truth. But if both of the things are of truth, most people would want to choose what they themselves want more. But if we have complete reasonableness, we would be able to choose things that can glorify God more. We would be able to think which of the ways would please God more. It was the case with Daniel and his three friends who were taken as captives to Babylon when it invaded the Southern Kingdom of Judah.

In Daniel 1, they lived in the palace of the Babylonian king and came to eat the choice food of the king. But this choice food possibly contained the kind of detestable foods prohibited by God's Law. Daniel and his three friends asked the chief of officials for a special favor. They asked him to give them only water and vegetables and check their condition after ten days. They could have just compromised and eaten the food thinking, "We are in Babylon, and it is out of our control." But they did not compromise and volunteered to eat only vegetables not to eat the foods prohibited by God.

So, God worked in a way that their appearances were better and more robust than those youths who were eating the king's choice food. Daniel and his friends also received great blessings because of their hearts that chose what is right and more of goodness. They later could reach high positions being recognized by the king.

It is sometimes not easy to choose what is more right in the sight of God. Even if we choose what is more of goodness, we may have some difficulties rather than immediate blessings. But even in those times, we have to have the willpower to accept them, without any complaints. We can do this only when we have strong trust in God. In addition, we have to understand what kinds of attitudes Daniel and his friends had until they were able to ask the chief of the officials such a favor. They were very good, faithful, and lovely before the chief of officials and other people. They had accumulated enough measure of their good deeds so that at a crucial moment God could move the heart of the chief of the officials.

When you show your faith in the sight of God, you sometimes need others' understanding or help. Suppose you want to attend a church's event but you cannot take a day off from work because of your work schedule or you have to go to family gathering. You have to ask a favor of other people or family members. To do so, you have to pile up deeds of goodness in your daily life. You must work diligently, gain recognition from others, and do no harm to others. You also have to move the hearts of your family members though you cannot attend the family gathering. If you just do whatever you want and ask them to understand you, it is just your greed.

3. Apostle Paul with Abundant Reasonableness

1) His desire not to cause souls to stumble

Even before he knew the Lord, he kept the Law of God completely. After he met the Lord, he gave his everything and he did not enjoy even the things that he could have enjoyed for the sake of the gospel. For example, 1 Corinthians 8:13 says, "Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will never eat meat again, so that I will not cause my brother to stumble."

At that time, there was a lot of idolatry in Corinth, and in many markets they sold the meat that had been offered to idols. So, people often happened to buy some meat that had once been offered to an idol without knowing. They wondered if this would be unacceptable to God. Of course, if the believer knew that it had been offered to idols, it would be better that he did not eat it. But, if he did not know where it came from or could not but eat it, then even if he ate the meat it was not a sin (Romans 14). He was just eating it as food, not as a part of participating in idolatry.

But for those who had weak faith, they might have disliked eating what was once offered to idols. Also, just by seeing Apostle Paul eat that food, they might have thought that he was participating in idolatry. Or, they might have thought, "Oh, if a person like Paul can eat food that has been sacrificed to idols, then I can eat it, too." In Paul's faith, it doesn't matter to eat it, but he said he would not eat that kind of food in the fear that somebody who saw him could stumble. He said he wanted to choose not to eat any meat forever to prevent any soul from stumbling.

2) His heart's willingness to give up his right and authority

Apostle Paul gave up his right to enjoy himself and get married like other people did so that such things would not get in the way of his preaching the gospel. He even gave up the right to be supported by believers. In fact, pastors were provided with the necessities from the church members to devote themselves to the Word and prayer. But Paul worked and satisfied his needs on his own. Of course, there were several other reasons for it. But above all he did not want to burden the members because of his love for them.

God was pleased with Paul and let him manifest more powerful works than other apostles. Also, God gave him clearer inspiration and greater wisdom so that he could give clear answers to the members' questions. And with great powerful works, he could lead countless souls to salvation and in the direction God wanted.

When you accomplish the heart of reasonableness or submissiveness with a willingness to yield, you can choose goodness all the time. You will choose goodness not because you have a certain underlying purpose or because someone is watching you. It is just because you want to please God more. That is, the goodness that fills your heart overflows and naturally comes out in your words and actions. Pastors and leaders must achieve this heart of reasonableness because they must show good examples in everything and sometimes do something that they do not have to do in order to glorify God.

Thus, when we do something, even if it belongs to the truth, we must humbly check if it is right in God's sight once again and choose what is more pleasing to Him. Then, we can do everything more wisely. If we can choose things that are more pleasing to God, it is true wisdom. Also, we can discern what is more pleasing to God to the extent that we throw away selfish motives.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

When you reach the eternal heaven, you will give tearful confession of thanks and love for God who remembers every hope of yours and gives beautiful dwelling places and rewards. I pray in the name of the Lord that you will receive the wisdom of reasonableness to choose what is pleasing to God and enter New Jerusalem the most beautiful heavenly kingdom.

"Answers and Blessings Overflow in Manmin Summer Retreat!"

Sister Yulia Gorelova, age 42, U.K.

After I listened to Dr. Jaerock Lee's sermon on TBN Russia in 2008, my family members joined the worship services and Daniel Prayer Meeting of Manmin Central Church online. In 2011 I was having a hard time getting a green card for four years after I moved to the U.K. But after I received Dr. Jaerock Lee's prayer, I got the card immediately. I also attended Manmin Summer Retreat every year beginning in 2013.

In 2016, I even experienced an amazing work. My first son was autistic, but the symptoms improved at the retreat. He would bump his head, shout and burst into anger frequently. He had not responded to my husband's and my words. He had not recognized things around him. He had just made animal-like sounds and said nothing. But after he received Senior Pastor's prayer for the sick at the retreat, he stopped shouting and responded to us. When we told him to close the door, he closed it. When it rained a little, he said, "Rain!" He even could discern one food from another. After he received the prayer in the summer retreat 2017, he was able to put on his belt for himself and say the words 'father' and 'mother'. He even expressed himself. Hallelujah!

My first son improved a lot, and in 2018 I came together with my second son. We were so happy to join the Manmin Summer Retreat overflowing with answers and joy.

"A pure heart is a key to the door of wisdom. True wisdom comes out from the heart, not the head."

“The power of God is the most amazing grace I have ever experienced!”

Dr. Hew Wei Yen, age 34, Singapore Manmin Church

I am a doctor specializing in family medicine. In fact, I did not believe in God. But because I was afraid that there could be an afterlife, I tried my best to be a good person. Yet, I always thought of the worst-case scenario in everything, so my nerves were always on edge and I often got angry.

One day, I happened to read a Bible on the table in the hotel where I stayed during my trip, but I could not understand many parts of it. As I read it I wondered why God placed the tree of the knowledge of good and evil in the Garden of Eden and why He made hell. Many other questions popped up and made it hard for me to believe the content. I asked my Christian friends about my inquiries but none of them gave me answers. One of them even said, “Just believe. If you are still curious afterwards, ask the questions of God in heaven.”

In August 2016, Dr. David Eu, one of my friends, talked about Dr. Jaerock Lee’s ministry and the World Christian Doctors Network that proves the power of God based on medical data. His wife, Missionary Wong Ping Ping, ministers to Singapore Manmin Church. She handed me the book The Message of the Cross. The book was like enlightenment carried on a bolt out of the blue. The questions I had, were all covered in the book!

I also saw incurable diseases being healed through Dr. Lee’s prayer. My fleshly thoughts were being chipped away and I finally accepted the Lord. The manifesting of the power of God was the most amazing thing that I had ever seen in my entire life. Such biblical works like those of Jesus healing the sick two thousand years ago spread out in front of my eyes! I believe God chose Dr. Lee and lets him help us, and I believe that Manmin Central Church is also His chosen church.

I am a doctor, but I sometimes felt helpless for some patients when I could not tell them the causes of their diseases. But now I can because I learned about the root of diseases through Senior Pastor’s message. I talked to patients about the testimonies presented in WCDN international conferences when they needed any help. I encouraged them, saying, “Don’t lose hope. God will help you.”

WCDN attests to healing cases through the prayer of faith and the gospel of Jesus Christ founded on medical data. They emphasize that all diseases are caused by spiritual reasons so that doctors can help their patients better. I am also amazed by the powerful works manifested by Senior Pastor. There are so many healing cases by his prayer including dermatitis, neurologic, respiratory, cardiac, and gastric diseases, stroke, blindness, deafness, auto-immunity system disorders, and cancer that cannot be cured with modern medicine.

In early August 2018, I attended Manmin Summer Retreat again as I had done the previous year. I saw many people receive healing of many diseases and experienced the wonder that made optimal weather in the retreat venue though heat wave warnings were issued nationwide. I had not had the peace and had not known happiness like that before, but now I am full of hope for heaven and so happy. I give all thanks and glory to God. Thank you, Senior Pastor for letting me know true value of my life.

“My right ear finally opened!”

Deaconess Hyejin Cho, age 49, Parish 5, Manmin Central Church

I was born deaf. When I was seven, I began to wear a hearing aid on my right ear and started to hear the sounds of people, but I could not understand it. At the age of nine, I started attending church and felt peace and happiness when I learned there is heaven.

In July 2008, I was guided to Manmin Central Church with my husband. I was amazed by Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee’s spiritual messages such as “The Message of the Cross” and “The Measure of Faith”. Pastor Junghoon Ji, my husband, also received much grace from his sermons and delivered the holiness gospel to many deaf people in Malaysia via the online video conference system. When Penang Manmin Church for the Deaf was established in 2010, my husband went to minister to the church. Since then, he has been spreading the ministry of Manmin to many deaf people in other countries including Thailand, Germany, and Denmark.

When I heard that many members were healed by Senior Pastor’s prayer, and especially when deaf people including my husband came to hear by the prayer, I also wanted to hear and felt excited. In the meantime, tinnitus occurred to me in my right ear in December 2017 and I could no longer use the hearing aid. I then became earnest. When I praised in Daniel Prayer Meeting, I prayed saying, “God, I want to hear the sound of the praise.” As the 2018 Manmin Summer Retreat drew near, I became more and more earnest. I wanted my ears to open and longed to help my husband serve deaf members with sign language service. I offered up prayer and fasting.

On the first night of the retreat, Rev. Soojin Lee prayed on the stage for the sick with the handkerchief on which Senior Pastor had prayed (Acts 19:11-12). I also received the prayer of Manmin Prayer Center President Boknim Lee. When she laid the handkerchief on me and prayed, the fire of the Holy Spirit came upon me and a sound of ‘Bang!’ was heard. The next day, I did not wear the hearing aid but I could hear the praise through my right ear!

I can hear now. I am so happy and full of grace. I now offer up the prayer of thanksgiving to God with tears. I give all thanks and glory to God who worked on me with the power of re-creation that regenerated my dead nerves and allowed me to hear.
