Kinshasa Manmin Church Online Divine Healing Meeting in D.R. Congo

On June 27, Sunday, at 8:00 PM (12 PM in local time), 'Kinshasa Manmin Church Online Divine Healing Meeting' in the Democratic Republic of Congo was held through Zoom service. At the Tshangu branch sanctuary as well as Kinshasa Manmin Church's main sanctuary, the members participated in the meeting on real-time video broadcast, longing for grace.

Beginning with the prayer of Pastor Samuel Han, ministering Kinshasa Manmin Church, there was a special song by the praise team from Kinshasa Manmin Church. All the members stood up and praised together adding to the grace.

The speaker Mrs. Boknim Lee, Director of Manmin Prayer Center, gave a time of repentance with praise and prayer after the sermon entitled, 'God the Healer'(Exodus 15:26). And then, she prayed for the members with the handkerchief of power(Acts 19:11-12) on which Rev. Dr. Jaerock Lee prayed.

pains, and kidney diseases were cured.

In particular, Mazingo Glody Chico(Age 26, Man) suffered from tuberculosis and hemorrhoids because he had not fully repented of Accordingly, Mongolia Manmin Church distributed sponsored items to the members twice on June 23 and 26 due to the COVID-19 situation.

The also shared the love of the Lord by delivering them to the pastors and lay members of other churches and children from disadvantaged groups. Among the sponsored items, laptops are going to be used for the members who need for the worship purpose and as award items on the occasion of church events.

Love Bears, Believes, Hopes, and Endures All Things (1)

“... [love] bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.”
(1 Corinthians 13:4-6)

1 Corinthians 13 is called 'Love Chapter'. Verses 4-6 explain the concept of love. Verse 7 draws the conclusion by stating 4 traits of spiritual love.

It says love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, and endures all things. Let us delve into the meaning of each.

1. Love Bears All Things

When we try to live by the word of God, we need to bear many things. We have to be patient when we're faced with rising anger or irritation. We need to control our desire to live as we like. That is why the first characteristic of love is that of patience.

Being patient is at the personal level, enduring various things to cast away untruths from heart. Bearing all things has broader and deeper meaning. After cultivating truth in our heart by being patient, we bear all the pains caused by other people. It is to bear with all things that are not of spiritual love.

Jesus did only good things on this earth, but people mocked and despised and crucified Him. Jesus bore with all those people and interceded for them (Luke 23:34). As a result of such bearing, the door of salvation was opened so that anyone who accepts Jesus as his personal Savior becomes God's child. Anyone could be set free from death and gain eternal life by faith.

God is slow to anger because He loves us. He always bears with us and shows us mercy and compassion. He changes very hardened hearts, too. He patiently waits even for those who seem to have absolutely no chance of being saved, to be saved.

Even today He is bearing all pains. He has been patient with so many evil people for thousands of years, waiting for them to be changed with goodness. Even for those who betrayed God and worshiped idols, He bore with them with faith in them and showing them He is the true God. He guides us with endless and limitless love (Jer. 31:3).

I could understand this heart of God to some extent as I've been ministering this church. I always looked at the believers with the eyes of faith, even those who had weak faith and who had unfavorable characters. I was waiting for them to change someday. I earnestly prayed for them as I taught them the holiness gospel.

I've witnessed that eventually many believers became good workers of God as a result of such patience. When I see those individuals I feel my patience was nothing. God counts His patience nothing even though He is patient for such a long time through unbearable moments. Let us realize His love and also love everyone (2 Pet. 3:8).

2. Love Believes All Things

If we truly love somebody we can trust everything about them. Married couples will trust their spouse if they truly love each other. Even if their spouses lack something, they still want to trust them. However, without love there is no trust but only passing judgment and condemnation.

Faith is one of the measures to see the volume of love. Therefore, trusting God completely can be a proof that we completely love Him. Abraham was called a friend of God. Because he trusted God completely, he obeyed without hesitation God's command to give Him his only son Isaac as a burnt offering. God acknowledged Abraham's faith and his love.

Love is to trust others. Those who love God will trust God and His words completely. For this reason they can bear all things.

It says 'love bears all things'. In order to bear all things that are not of spiritual love, we must have faith. Only when we believe all the words of God can we diligently circumcise our heart and cast away all the things that are not of spiritual love.

It is not that we believe in God because we loved Him from the beginning. The fact is that God first loved us, and we just believed it, and we came to love God too. God opened the way of salvation by giving His only begotten Son for us who were sinners. At first, we love God because we believe this fact, but if we cultivate spiritual love, we will reach a level where we believe because we love.

Cultivating spiritual love signifies casting away all hearts of untruth. If free of untruths in heart, spiritual faith will be given from above with which we can believe from heart. Then, we won't doubt God's word and our trust will never be shaken. Also, those who cultivate spiritual love will believe in others as well. It's not because the others are trustworthy, but because with love one can believe in them with the eyes of faith.

We should also believe any kind of person. We should also believe in ourselves. Even though we lack many things, we need to look at ourselves with the eyes of faith, believing in God who will change us. The Holy Spirit in our heart will always tell us that we can do it and He will help us. If we believe God's love and believe that we can change, God will make it happen.

God believes in us. He believed each of us would come to know God's love and be saved. He looked at everything with the eyes of faith. For this reason He gave His only begotten Son on to the cross unsparingly. He believes that even those who do not know the Lord yet will come to His side one day. He believes that those who accepted Jesus Christ will be changed and come forth as His children who resemble Him. I hope you will also be able to believe in any kind of soul.

3. Love Hopes All Things

When people don't like something about others, they tend to try to change others to be as they want. However, it is next to impossible to change others. We need to change ourselves before trying to change others. We can just patiently wait for them to change with love and trust.

Love hopes all things in that it looks forward to our faith being actualized in reality. If we love God, we hope God's words will be accomplished. We bear all things because we hope we will share eternal love with God in the kingdom of heaven later.

Unbelievers live as they wish in their given circumstances because they don't have hope of a happy life in heaven. They just try to gain more and to gratify their desires. However, no matter how much one can enjoy, there is no true satisfaction. They still have fear of an uncertain future.

However, believers go the narrow way because they hope all things. 'Narrow way' means it is seen as a narrow way in the sight of the unbelievers. God's children do not indulge themselves in pleasures of the world. They go to church every Sunday, try to live by the word of God and voluntarily work for Him. All these things are hard without faith, and for this reason it is a 'narrow way'.

The apostle Paul said in 1 Cor. 15:19, "If we have hoped in Christ in this life only, we are of all men most to be pitied." In physical sense we need to exercise self-control in many aspects, and it might appear burdensome. However, this way is the happiest way. If we think of the eternal joy and happiness we will have in heaven, how delightful this way is!

Those who truly believe will keep on waiting and hoping until all things come to be. Even for troublesome teens, if the parents trust them and look at them with the eyes of hope, they can change into good children any moment.

The parents' trust will plant self-esteem in them and facilitate their development. Those with high self-esteem have the faith that they can do anything by themselves and can overcome hardships. Such mindset will increase their grades, too. The same goes when taking care of the souls.

We must never make a character judgment on any soul based on our thoughts. We must never think they will never change or they are not changing at all. We have to look at them with the eyes of hope, hoping they will change by God's love. We have to encourage them and continually pray for them. We should be able to have the eyes of hope with the heart of God who waits for us for a thousand years as if it were but a day.

Dear brothers and sisters,

The power of spiritual love is tremendous. If we cultivate spiritual love to bear, believe, and hope all things, many souls will be touched by our words and actions and be guided to the way of salvation.

I pray in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ that you will possess spiritual love that can save dying souls and reach the city of New Jerusalem.

The difference of the records about two robbers on the cross

When you read the four Gospels, you will find that the contents of the robbers on the left and right of Jesus when He was crucified are slightly different in each book.

In Matthew 27:44, it is said, "The robbers who had been crucified with Him were also insulting Him with the same words", and in Mark 15:32, it is said, "... now come down from the cross, so that we may see and believe!" Those who were crucified with Him were also insulting Him." On the other hand, in Luke 23, it is recorded that one robber not only rebuked the other robber, but also repented and received Jesus as the Savior and was saved.

Then, why are there such a difference in the biblical record?

This was not written in error by the writers of the Bible, but was permitted in God's providence.

The Bible is a book that implies a very large amount of information about God's providence and history. This is because thousands of books would not be enough if you record all the stories in great details.

Today, there is a video, so if you take a video of the scene of an event, future generations can see it too, but in Jesus' day, there was no such tool. So, it was impossible to leave even a picture of a scene no matter how important. There was only one way to record it in writing, but from the words recorded differently in the Gospels, we can infer the situation more realistically.

Thousands of people followed when Jesus was preaching the gospel. Among them, there were those who wanted to hear the word of life, those who wanted to see wonders and signs, and those who wanted to get food. Also there were those who loved Jesus so much that they even sold their possessions to serve and follow Him.

In Luke 9, Jesus performed a miracle of Five Loaves and Two Fish to feed his followers, and at that time, there were more than 5,000 men (Luke 9:12-17). So, how many people must have been at the place of Jesus' execution, including those who loved Him, those who hated Him, and other people who came to see Him?

As large crowds surrounded the cross, the Roman soldiers held spears and shields in both hands to stop the crowd from rushing in. So, you can imagine a scene in which people stand in a semicircle a little far from the cross.

At this time, the high priests, scribes, and a large crowd gathered around the cross and were saying evil words to Jesus. So, which side of people would be able to hear the sound accurately?

It is such a tumultuous situation that only those who stood close to the robber would know it exactly. But the robber on the other side was also looking at Jesus and speaking, as if he was insulting Jesus. In fact, this robber was rebuking the other robber who cursed Jesus, but when the people on the other side saw him, it was seen as if he was cursing at Jesus who was hung on the cross in the center.

In such a situation where it was difficult to hear the other robber, some of those who saw the scene from afar said that the two robbers cursed Jesus. However, if you look at the Gospel of Luke, who knew exactly the situation at that time and recorded it, you can see that the robber did not curse Jesus but rather repented and came to salvation.

Because what people in different locations said were recorded in the Bible as they were, we can feel the situation at that time more accurately and realistically. So, God, who knows everything, has allowed these differences in records so that future generations can accurately discern the situation.

The Bible is the Word of God, without any smallest error.

“God is healing my daughter suffering from an incurable disease!”

Pinky (Age 40, Jharkand, India)

My daughter Mahima was taken to the ER due to pneumonia in 2018 when she was 9 months old. She was healed of pneumonia in 10 days in the hospital, but she got her brain damaged due to high fever which was its aftereffect. The doctor said that there was no more possible treatment but only physical treatment was available.

She gradually lost her strength and became weak. She was 3 years old but couldn't sit or walk. Furthermore, she didn't respond to me. There was nothing I could do as a mother.

I searched 'prayer for patients' on YouTube because I wanted to receive prayer for her. 'Dr. Jaerock Lee's prayer for the patients' caught my eyes and I called the GCNTV HINDI office after receiving his prayer. The worker kindly consulted me so that I could know God's will and receive answers.

Afterwards, I was able to worship through the YouTube channel GCNTV HINDI and listen to his sermons. At first, they were not well understood, but as they gradually became understood, I realized God's will. When I felt the Lord's love while listening to the sermons titled "The Message of the Cross" twice, I thought to myself that my daughter could be healed.

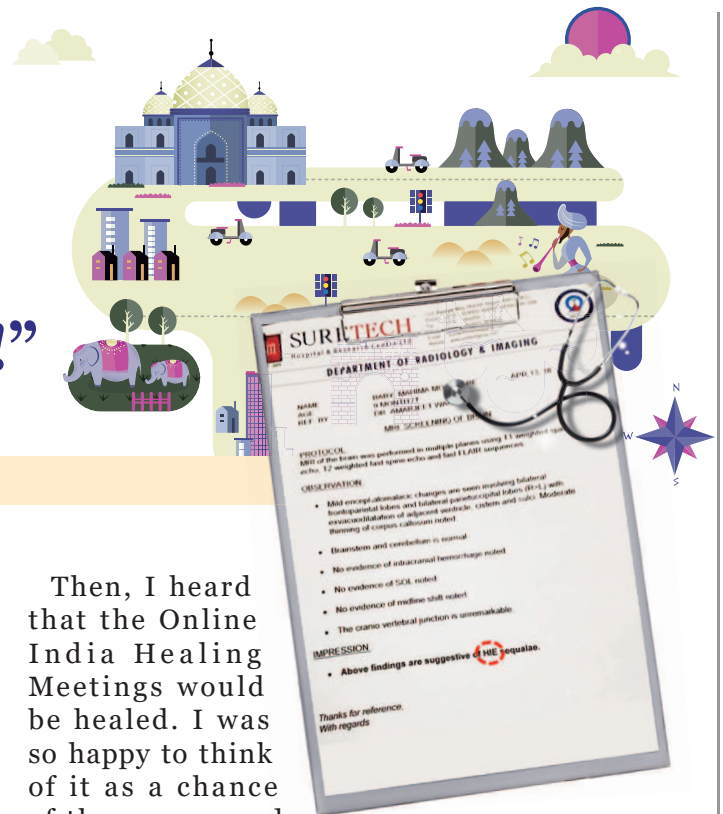

In fact, I was a Christian but my life wasn't renewed as I didn't live by the word of God. My family still had conflicts and we didn't have peace. However, listening to Dr. Jaerock Lee's sermons, I learned how to get out of darkness to light, what the spiritual love is, and what to do to get healed.

Then, I heard that the Online India Healing Meetings would be healed. I was so happy to think of it as a chance of the answer and I fasted for 3 days and prepared it with all my heart.

I attended the meeting aired on GCNTV HINDI on Sunday March 14th. That day, she had a fever since the morning. When Mrs. Boknim Lee prayed for the sick with the handkerchief of power (Acts. 19:11-12), she was sleeping in my arms. However, her fever went down when her prayer was over. And she woke up and moved her hands and feet. I was so happy.

Next day, I saw many changes in my daughter. There had been many restrictions on the movement of hands and feet so she couldn't have moved them freely. But I saw her moving very well on that day. And she hadn't responded at all but she looked at me, reached her hand out to me, tried to stand up by herself and laughed. Since then, she has become active. This is really amazing, and it's a huge improvement.

This has grown my faith. I believe that my daughter will be able to walk completely as my faith grows so I love to hear the Word of God and sanctify my heart by fasting and prayer. All thanks and glory be to God the Healer and the Almighty!

“The bad habit in my body was fixed in an instant”

Deaconess Youngsook Bang (Age 52, the 20th Parish)

I have had a habit of biting my nails since I was a kid. When I was anxious, the symptoms got worse. It got even worse when I was under the stress of having to perform sales at the company. As a result, the shape of my nails became strange and sometimes even bleeding, so I tried to change this habit, but failed within a day.

I tried artificial nails, but my nails were too short to attach them easily. Even if they were attached, I kept biting them unconsciously.

However, not long after I started to attend “the 2nd Senior Pastor’s book reading campaign”, I suddenly thought, ‘Should I grow my nails?’ Since then, I didn’t even want to bite my nails, and I found myself not biting my nails all of a sudden. What a surprise!

As I have never been able to grow my nails before, it is very surprising that my nails are growing well for nearly two months now.

Reading the Dr. Jaerock Lee’s books, I came to understand the flow of the Bible, and I realized that I was so ignorant both physically and spiritually. I regretted and felt sorry for not reading them before.

As I remembered the words that the Senior Pastor Dr. Lee emphasized over and over again, I was grateful for the love that he always enlightened people like me.

I give all thanks and glory to Father God, who not only gave me spiritual blessings but also healed my bad habit that I could not change with my own will, through the “Senior Pastor’s book reading campaign”.
