People Who Met God

*Look up at the skies, and you will find
His delicate touch displayed for you today.*

“My 4.3cm thyroid nodules (tumors, lumps) are completely gone!”

On March 29, 2024, I went to hospital for a regular checkup and after the thyroid ultrasound examination, the doctor said to me, “You are found to have two 4.3cm thyroid nodules and two other nodules. Go to a bigger hospital.” I had the thyroid ultrasound examination at another hospital, and the result was the same.

My appointment was on May 2 and at dawn that day, I had a dream. In my dream, Pastor Emeritus Jaerock Lee appeared. He put his hand on my neck and prayed for me, saying, “Be patient and endure all things in hardships, and glorify Father God.” I woke up to have assurance of divine healing.

I brought my thyroid ultrasound result CD and medical notes to the doctor. He decided to do the two 4.3cm thyroid nodules biopsy on May 20 and the others later.

My heart was at peace through the dream, and I felt God’s love who would cause me to bear the fruit of answers. I was so much thankful. I desired to receive healing at a Divine Healing Meeting held on May 31, and attended a 21-day Vowed Daniel Prayer Meeting from May 13 and earnestly prayed for my healing.

On May 13, Senior Pastor Soojin Lee prayed for the congregation who attended the Vowed Daniel Prayer Meeting at its beginning and closing. I received her prayer with yearning and faith. After that, I looked back on my past days and prayed for realizing my faults. Arrogance, aspersions, and hatred came up in my mind and I repented of them rending my heart.

On the biopsy appointment day, May 20, the doctor did the ultrasound examination and wondered, saying, “No nodule is seen?” I was so surprised and asked, “None of the four?” “Nothing! It’s strange. No nodule at all.” Only a small trace remained and the nodules were all gone!

When I said this to my family, they were amazed and rejoiced and then gave thanks to God. I give all thanks and glory to the loving God who always guides me in His best way.

"I was recovered from dengue fever and 90% risk of death of heart disease!"

Reverend Martín Álvarez
Regional President of Latin University of Theology in Cono Sur (Chile, Argentina, Uruguay)

In 2021, I saw a doctor due to breathing difficulty and inflammation in the leg. The examination showed eccentric cardiac hypertrophy and one pump of my heart did not function properly. The doctor said I could drop dead at any time. The doctors conducted more thorough examinations and recommended intensive treatment.

The malfunction of the heart caused blood to rush to the legs and it developed edema. It also brought about problems in the lungs. I had received medical treatments for 3 years, but it didn't work. With the passing of time, cardiac hypertrophy and the heart pump went worse, and respiratory disorder occurred.

Meanwhile, in April of 2024, I was stricken with mosquito bites and developed dengue fever. My respiratory disorder worsened and my temperature exceeded 40 degree Celsius. I was unable to control my body properly. Dengue fever is acute febrile disease accompanied with high fever and 90% of the serious victims die according to the statistics.

Due to dengue fever, I had to urinate every 3 to 10 minutes for the next 4 days and blood came out of nose and ears. The platelet abruptly dropped from at least 150,000 to 72,000 and the doctor said there might be 90% chance of my death.

Despite this I continually tried to pray to God and communicate with the Holy Spirit. And I continued listening to Pastor Emeritus Jaerock Lee's sermons and Manmin praises dubbed in Spanish. My heart was at pace and my spirit improved. After a while, I sent a prayer request to Dr. Soojin Lee, Senior Pastor of Manmin Central Church in Seoul, Korea.

She prayed for me during the Sunday service on April 21, and to my surprise, my heart improved and my breathing was recovered to normal next day. I could climb the stairs easily and move my body freely.

I went to the hospital, and the examination showed that my platelet had returned to normal and my swollen liver had been recovered well. A month passed and on May 25, I could give a lecture in the seminary for six and a half hours and it felt like just a quarter had passed.

I have served as Regional President of Latin University of Theology in Cono Sur: Chile, Argentina, and Uruguay. I gave my healing testimony to President of Latin University of Theology in U.S. and its seminary students. I give all thanks and glory to God who healed me, and I also appreciate Senior Pastor Soojin Lee's prayers.

I was miraculously brought back to life from vegetative state!

A traffic accident turned Brother Ankush Nelson into a vegetable. The doctor said there was no hope for his recovery at all. His wife surfed the web for a YouTube channel livestreaming divine healing prayer. She came across the livestreaming of Manmin Summer Retreat 2019 and by prayer, he was miraculously brought back to life and completely recovered.

"I was recovered from the risk of blindness due to a burned cornea"

Preacher Lucas Quiniones
Jesús Te llama Church in Argentina

It happened early morning, May 7 of 2024. I was repairing my car and the electric battery suddenly exploded. At that very instant, strong acidic liquid covered my face and my eyes were severely burned. I was sent to a nearby hospital. However, my eyes' burn was so serious that I was transferred to a large eye hospital in Buenos Aires, about 36 km away.

The examination result was very shocking to me. The doctor said, "The right eye lost the vision because the cornea was burned and turned white. Chances are that the left eye may lose the vision as well." He said there was no other effective treatment but should only wait a day or two.

At 7 PM that day, I was scheduled to appear on the live web-streaming program '21st Century Christian Focus (Original title: ENFOQUE CRISTINO EN EL SIGLO XXI)' hosted by Pastor Martin Alvarez. I managed to appear for the gospel's sake and talked about what had happened to me. I even read the Bible with the left eye during the live broadcasting.

'21st Century Christian Focus' is always finished with the recorded prayer from Dr. Soojin Lee, Senior Pastor of Manmin Central Church in Seoul, Korea. Pastor Martin Alvarez said to me, "You will be healed and your vision be recovered if you receive her prayer with faith."

I received her prayer with faith and a longing heart. Next day I found something amazing. The burning sensation in my eyes that had lasted after the accident stopped totally. Not only this, but 2 weeks later the examination showed the vision of both the eyes recovered 100%. And no aftereffects whatsoever followed.

On May 21, I appeared on '21st Century Christian Focus' once again and gave this amazing testimony. I give all thanks and glory to God the Healer and appreciate Pastor Soojin Lee's prayer.

Jesus Christ is the only person worthy of redeeming mankind!

As explained in the last issue, the first condition for the redemption of mankind is that the Redeemer must be a man as a close relative to Adam, and the second condition for it is that He must not belong to Adam's descendants.

The third condition for it is that the Redeemer must be strong enough to defeat the devil.

Leviticus 25:26-27 reads, "Or in case a man has no kinsman, but so recovers his means as to find sufficient for its redemption, then he shall calculate the years since its sale and refund the balance to the man to whom he sold it, and so return to his property." It says that the one who sold the land must recover sufficient means to buy it back.

Similarly, the Redeemer must be strong enough to redeem mankind from sin. In a spiritual sense, power comes from sinlessness. So, sinless person can have so great power as to restore Adam and his authorities that had been handed over to the devil. Sinless redeemer can redeem Adam's descendants and the authorities from the devil.

Since Adam sinned, all have been born a sinner because they inherit sinful nature from their parents, which is called 'original sin.' They also commit sins while living in this world, which are called 'self-committed sin.' Everyone has both original sin and self-committed sins.

Whoever keeps the whole law, and yet stumbles in one point, he is guilty of all (James 2:10), and whoever harbors a sinful desire in heart such as lust and hate is also guilty (Matthew 5:28; 1 John 3:15). Not anyone who commits sin in action or harbors sinful desire in heart once has the power to redeem mankind.

As conceived by the Holy Spirit, Jesus

"And there is salvation in no one else; for there is no other name under heaven that has been given among men,
by which we must be saved."
(Acts 4:12)

had no original sin inherited from the parents' life energy. Since His birth, He completely observed the law. On the eighth day He was circumcised (Luke 2:21) and He committed no sin whatsoever but completely obeyed the will of God until He was crucified to death at 33 (1 Peter 2:22-24; Hebrews 7:26).

As He had neither original sin nor self-committed sin, Jesus was strong enough to save mankind and had the power to defeat the devil. According to the law which reads, "the wages of sin is death" He couldn't be in bondage of the curse of the law and overcame death. On the third day of His crucifixion He was risen from the dead.

As He had no sin at all, His public ministry was accompanied with spiritual power, and all things obeyed His words. It was proved by manifestations of His power. By His power, evil spirits were driven out and infirmities were made well. Infirmities refer to what cannot be cured with human ability such as the blind, the deaf, or the lame. When He commanded the sea, the wind died down and it became calm (Mark 4:39).

Lastly and fourthly, the Redeemer must have life-giving love.

Suppose a poor man has sold his property but his nearest kinsman is wealthy enough to redeem it. If the rich relative does not love the poor man, he cannot get it back on the poor man's behalf. In the same way, the Redeemer must pay for the penalty of sinners and sacrifice on their behalf to redeem mankind from the devil.

Ruth 4:1-6 tells of a widow Naomi who had been to the land of Moab due to famine but returned to Bethlehem. Among her husband Elimelech's nearest kinsmen, Boaz told the first closest relative to redeem the land for Naomi in front of witnesses. But the man refused to do it lest it should ruin his own inheritance. Boaz was the next closest relative and bought the land back for her and married Ruth, daughter-in-law of Naomi. Boaz begot Obed, the father of Jesse, the father of David.

All were doomed to death as the punishment of their sins, and the Redeemer had to be blameless and pay for the punishment on their behalf. He should also receive all kinds of ridicules and mockeries, and be brutally crucified to death. Thus, He should give His body as an atoning sacrifice for them. Jesus could not have done it without a love for mankind.

As He had true love for them, Jesus walked the path of suffering and died on the rugged wooden cross. He was the Son of God, but came to this earth in a human form and obeyed the will of God completely to the point of crucifixion. During His earthly ministry, He did only good, healed people of diseases, released them from the bondage of evil spirits, preached the gospel of the kingdom of heaven, and comforted them with the hope for heaven. He sacrificed Himself completely on the cross. The only one worthy to save mankind is Jesus Christ.
